

ROTOGRAVURES

Mr. Campbell views the sad plight of Virginia Noll using the formula H2O plus Octagon equals "Washout."

Exclusive photograph of Dr. Rondthaler snapped while visiting the "Green Room."

Portrait of Miss Bet Miller's canary in act of spreading sunshine.

Francis Broadus Staley, one of Salem's three most popular co-eds, snapped unawares in the midst of an English oration.

Miss Georgia Huntington picks the "Cutest One."

Miss Mary Virginia Pendergraph snapped in act of announcing the "Follies of 1898," latest production of the Pierrette Players.

Salem photographer discovers the secret of day students' popularity.

Miss Cokey Preston, famous athlete, engages in her favorite indoor sport.

Miss Sarah Graves demonstrates exclusively for the "Salemite" photographer the proof of her latest theory that "the Penn is mightier than the Sword."

Marion Hadley, Captain-elect of the Butter-finger Nine, caught catching (cold?) on Lower Field.

Snapshot of Susie Calder and horse immediately after taking a fence. Unfortunately Miss Calder did not arrive in time to appear in the picture.

ANNOUNCEMENTS ARE MOST OF PROGRAM

Finally, the least important talk was made by Elizabeth Hatch who said:

Mr. and Mrs. S. Al Emcollege
Announce the marriage of their daughter
Miss June Oirelclass
to

Mr. Fresh Man
on Friday, November 13
at High 7 o'clock

Your presents are required.
The Freshies, as usual, slept through the meeting while the pitiful little Sophs tried, with all their might, to understand all the big words. In their corner the Juniors day dreamed and the Seniors, on account of their caps, could do nothing but look bored. The announcements were a terrible flop and a discredit to the school's ancestors.

FIRST WEDDING OF SEASON IS HELD

Jimmy, Margaret Wall; Eta Kett, Wanna Mary Huggins; Tilly, Mary Lillian White; Happy Hooligan, Gihlan Hall; Orphan Annie, Cokey Preston; Pat, Jo Walker; Skeezix, Mary Drew Dalton; Uncle Walt, Rachel Carroll; Bunker Hill, Jr., Jane Williams; Kayo, Mary B. Williams; Aunt Emmy, Mary Katherine Thorpe and Moon Mullins.

Mr. and Mrs. Gump will be at home to friends in Australia where Mr. Gump holds the prominent position of being the richest man in the country.
