

EXCHANGE COLUMN

By special request of the copy-right owners the Exchange invite you to the Salemite Office.

If you have a passion for poetry, quotations, jokes, or clever tales about doctors look on the exchange rack for Skull and Bones. For news about sissy girls' schools "The Twig," "Queen's Blues," "Campus Comments," "The Carolinian," and "Tower Times," are the ones for you to read.

The University papers are: "The Gamecock" and "Duke Chronicle."

College Papers are: "The B. C. Bee," "Old Gold and Black," "The Collegiate," "The Pinnacles," "The Rotunda," "The Pioneer," "The Technician," "The Lenoir Rhynean," and "The Hi-Po."

Even at U. of S. C. gym classes were suspended during that beastly exam week.

WORLD COURT

The Senate reversed its predicted form Tuesday and failed to ratify the U. S. Membership in the World Court. This was a Roosevelt issue and had been slated to carry. The vote in the Senate on the issue was 52 to 36. A two-thirds majority was necessary.

Often the one who is absent from the bridge party gets the most slams.

TACTFUL HINTS ON GREETING ALUMNAE

I. When chatting with a former inmate about whose graduation date you are dubious.

1. Avoid mentioning dated events. Above all, steer clear of such timely expressions as "Oh did that happen after your day," or "Did you really have to get permission to take a bath when you were here?"
2. Avoid asking if she has a daughter old enough to go to Salem next year.
3. Refrain from insinuating she must have been at school at the same time your mother was.
4. Listen sweetly and appear shocked when alumnae confidently whispers about the time she got caught in the midst of a mid-nite feast. (Avoid ruining her story by mentioning the night you locked Rig in her room and turned on the fire alarm.)

II. When chatting with a very recent graduate.

1. Avoid asking why she hasn't married yet.
2. Avoid asking her for the loan of her term paper in English lit. (She might have flunked it.)
3. Refrain from gloating over new privileges gotten the year after the alumnae graduated.
4. If you were a freshman when alumnae was a senior, avoid asking her if she remembers you

BASKETBALL SEASON OPENS

On With The Game!

After a week of complete rest, al Salem Athletes turn eagerly to practice for the Basket Ball Games. There are to be second team games. There are to be second team games, which gives everyone a chance to make a team of some description.

The best games of the season are to be broadcast and I hear the management is having difficulty deciding whether the announcer shall be Lowell Thomas or John Downs, Sr. The odds seem to be in favor of the latter.

Next to spring holidays the greatest and most anticipated event of the Spring is the Basket Ball game which is to be played between the men of the faculty and the co-eds. The admission charged to this extraordinary feat is only ten cents (which will go to gym repairs).

Between halves of the games there will be entertainment for the audience; such as music, dancing, and eating.

If you haven't heard about the new addition in the gym, go to prac-

Jersey and Lace

Mainbocher's most exciting contributions to the spring mode are his lace-trimmed daytime frocks. Here is one of grey Jersey and navy blue lace. It looks like a two-piece, but is in reality a one-piece dress.

NOTES ON VANITY

Archeologists say that the cosmetic art was well developed by 5000 B. C.

Physicians say that bad posture is at the bottom of many physical ills, and skin troubles. Dropped chests, dropping shoulders, soft and relaxed abdominal muscles never brought anyone a fair face.

Opaque polishes are good for many reasons, one of which is that such polishes cover up blemishes on nails. Incidentally, try experimenting with various shades of polish. Some shades are much more flattering to hands than are others.

According to forecasts, the feminine world goes high hat this spring. High hats, regency bonnets, poke bonnets are due on the stage soon. Pill-box hats, also, will probably be in vogue this spring.

As for clothes, almost anything may happen. The inevitable shirt-waist dress continues to be very much in demand. Satins are forecast in stripes with an awning effect and also in small, delicate prints.

There is a new lipstick out for red-heads. It is a shade specially designed for them and created to flatter them especially.

Practice some afternoon and see the neck-savers, or mattresses which protect the stone fireplace from the players.

Chapel was conducted under the leadership of Margaret Ward and Cokey Preston. A sheet of paper was given to each student; on this paper were the Senior hit song and the Alma Mater song. The latter was conducted by Dean Vardell. Then Cokey Preston led the audience in singing the hit song. These two songs will be sung this week-end while we are celebrating "Salem Day." Everyone was urged to memorize the songs by tomorrow when we shall sing them in chapel. Chapel was adjourned amidst the echoes and re-echoes of our college songs.

MINNEAPOLIS SYMPHONY WILL PRESENT CONCERT

(CONTINUED ON PAGE ONE) ago, and was so enthusiastically received then that it is reappearing in the same city within two years. Eugene Ormandy, conductor of the Minneapolis Symphony, will also appear again as the conductor for Monday's concert.

An added interest should be shown by Salem students in the appearance of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra because the weekly concerts given by the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra during the fall acquainted many students with the beauty of symphonic music.
