

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT LENOIR

(Continued From Page One) from Lenoir. The cornet soloist of the band of Culver Military Academy in Indiana, received his early training in the Lenoir High School band. The present cornet soloist of the U. S. Army band of Washington, D. C., was at one time on the teaching staff in Lenoir and went from Lenoir to Washington. College band drum majors at the University of North Carolina, N. C. State College and Davidson College were formerly Lenoir High band members. When the Lenoir students went to Raleigh recently to play for the inauguration of Governor Hoey, the drum major of the Lenoir band had an older brother marching in the same parade as drum major for N. C. State College band.

The Lenoir band also has its alumni in the music school at Salem and they will be on hand when the present band members arrive for the concert.

Yes, an' I'm the guy that left them there.

Pro.: Jones, what does HNO3 signify?

Jones: Well, ah, er-r — I've got it right on the tip of my tangle, sir.

Pro.: Well, you'd better spit it out. It's nitric acid.

Angry patron: I've never seen a worse picture in my life!

Commissionaire: Ever 'ad your photo taken?

"M-m-m—Weak eyes, have you? Well, how many lines can you read on that chart?"

"What chart?"

Waiter: Haven't you forgotten something, sir?

Professor: Why, I thought I gave you the customary tip.

Waiter: You did, sir, but you forgot to eat.

Tired Eyes and Poor Light Are Companions!

No truer statement could be made. Only one thing can result from poor light — eyestrain. Most people do not realize that eyestrain causes a drain of nervous energy which results in headaches, fatigue and other bodily harm. You can prevent this.
