SALEM CHOOSES ALL-STAR FOOT BALL TEAM

Qualification: Pulchritude

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! The "Salemite" sports staff has picked its All-Star Big Five Football team. But since we females are so prejudiced to good looks, we have decided to pick the players for the team according to their masculine charm instead of their ability on the gridiron. Our selection has been made from a group of pictures the "Journal and Sentinel" sports staff so kindly let us use. We tried to pick the best looking man for each post, but we realize that some of the players were greatly flattered by the pictures we saw while others were done great injustices in their attempts to appear "tough" therefore, if we have made any to ghastly errors in our selection, we offer our apologies now. We also apologise for having to shift some of the players from their original posts, for in some cases there were so many handsome Hercules playing the same position that we just couldn't limit our choice to two players.

Here is our idea of a good looking all star team:

Co-Captains:

Dave Warden, Davidson, tackle
Bob Spangler, Duke, back.

Ends:

Horace Palmer, Carolina.
Nen Iveson, Davidson.

Tackle:

Fred Yorke, Duke.
Dave Warden, Davidson.

Guards:

Bob Alabaster, Duke
Jim Woodson, Carolina.

Center:

Bob Adams, Carolina.

Backs:

Bob Spangler, Duke.
George Wirtz, Wake Forest.
Paul Lazier, N. C. State.
Jim LaLanne, Carolina.

MORAVIAN COLLEGE INVADES SOUTH

Sectional Clash Between Moravian College and Appalachian State

Supporters from Salem's brother school, Moravian College, one of the strong small schools of the East, arrived today from Bethlehem and made final preparations for their game tomorrow with Appalachian State in Bowman Gray Stadium. The two inter-sectional rivals will meet in the last football game for college teams on North Carolina ground this year. The kick-off is set for 2 o'clock. Both teams are reported in tip-top shape after highly successful seasons. The Mountaineers from Boone have only a 7-6 defeat on their record for the year. This game will close Coach Kid Brewer's career at Appalachian. The Winston-Salem boy, former star at Duke, is withdrawing from the football world. (Incidentally Moravian College's Coach is Mr. Edwin Snavelly.)

A reduction in the ticket price is expected to prove popular. Student tickets are on sale at Mr. Oerter's office.

THE WESTWARD HO QUESTION

In the final Associated Press football ranking poll of the year, ninety sports writers and editors chose Notre Dame as the Nation's No. 1 team with Duke in third place. Southern California's Trojans, champions of the Pacific Coast Conference, will have a chance to test the accuracy of sports writers in ranking football teams. The Trojans play Notre Dame, Saturday and meet Duke in the Rose Bowl, New Year's Day.

The margins separating the first three teams voted on was not large. Notre Dame was awarded top ranking by forty-eight votes; Texas Christian U. drew twenty-three first-place ballots, and Duke, fifteen. Tennessee collected the other four and fourth place. Scoring ten points for a first place vote, nine for second, etc. Notre Dame earned the lead for the third straight week with 823 points to 782 for the Horned Frogs and 733 for Duke.
