SENIORS DEFEAT SOPHOMORES IN FINAL TOURNAMENT GAME

Friday night the final game of basketball was played to determine the winner of the tournament for the season. The Sophomore and Senior teams were the two teams qualified for the cup. There were thrills plus fast play and spectacular passing from the minute the referee blew the whistle signifying the beginning of the game until the last minute of play. The players were pressed on by cheers and shouts of encouragement from the supporters of the two teams. Some of the spectators are still trying to figure out the spectacular play the seniors had so carefully planned. It worked beautifully the second time that they tried it. Both teams seemed closely matched in their playing. During the first half the score appeared to be dangerously close, but at the half the score was 10 to 4 in favor of the seniors. It was not very long after the second half of the game was in progress before the seniors started to "roll up the score" which at the close of the game was 28 to 16 in the senior's favor. Hutchison was high scorer for the entire game with a total of 17 points. Emerson was high scorer for the Sophomores, scoring 12 points. Once again the Seniors are the proud possessors of the cup, having triumphed over all three of the under classes in their preliminary matches. They remain undefeated and untied for the seasons 1937-1938 and 1938-1939.

The line-up follows:
 Seniors: Martin, F. Emerson, S. McNeely A. Smith, K. A. Hutchison, J. Angelo, F. Grantham, E. B. Forrest, S. Johnson, A. Tyson, F. McCarty, E. Lanning, L.
 Substitutes:
 Senior: Bowen, Pfohl, Spence.
 Officials: Carter and Pitzer.

also been active in dramatics and has newspaper.
 Other nominated candidates for the office of class presidents were Jane Alice Dilling, of Gastonia (junior); Lee Rice, of Lancaster, S. C., (sophomore); and Elizabeth Weldon, Martha Bowman, Mary Jane Copenhaver, and Dot Sisk, (freshmen).

AWARDS MADE AT BASKETBALL BANQUET

With the final game Friday night, the official basketball season was all over, that is, all over except the announcement of the varsity and the awards. It is the custom each year for "Miss At" and a committee chosen from the Athletic Association Council to select the Salem basketball varsity. To make the varsity is the aim of many but the goal which few attain. The Salem Varsity for 1939-1940 includes:

Forwards: Annette McNeely (senior); Felicia Martin (senior); Josephine Hutchison (senior); Sally Emerson (Soph). Guards: Anne Johnson (senior); Emma Brown Grantham (senior); Sue Forrest (Soph); Lillian Lanning (Soph).

The only newcomers to the varsity are Emerson, Lanning and Grantham.

In addition to the announcement of the varsity, Peggy Bowen as chairman of the Points Committee, made the awards based on the points accumulated by girls so far this year. Those who, by making twenty points received a letter, were: Gerry Baynes, Sally Emerson, Margaret Holbrook, Mabel Pitzer, Jessie Skinner, and Mary Thomas. Those girls who had accumulated ten additional points, totaling thirty and received a star were Peggy Bowen, Emma Brown Grantham, Anne Johnson, Jane Kirk, Felicia Martin, and Carolyn Pfohl. For an additional twenty points or a total of forty points, Ann Johnson and Annette McNeely received sweaters, and for the seldom-attained total of fifty points, Josephine Hutchison received a coveted Salem blazer.

BABYLONIAN SHEIK IN CHAPEL

David are applicable to the people living in his country today.

The principal occupations are those of herdsmen, shepherds and farmers. The shepherds whistle almost continuously, and Emmanuel gave an example of their songs to the accompaniment of the organ. The sowers are generally pious for as they throw their handfuls of grain, they call that one hand is for God, one for the poor, and one for the family. If in gathering the sheaves, one drops a bundle, he does not pick it up but leaves it for the poor.

In answers to questions asked at the end of the talk, Emmanuel stated that missionaries from four foreign lands are now working in his country: Roman Catholics from France, Lutherans from Germany, Episcopalians from England, and Presbyterians from America. He, himself, attends the Lestarian Church, an ancient one from the Bible land. For forty days and nights before Easter, the members fast, eating no meat, cheese, eggs, butter or milk.

There is no formal education. The boys are taught the Bible and only that; the girls are trained in home economics by their mothers. There are no laws or jails, and the people are obedient to the eldest member of the household. Old age is regarded as an honor and old people are treated with deference. The women are entirely subservient to the men.

A composition by the speaker, "The Shepherd," was whistled as a solo, with organ accompaniment. At the conclusion of the talk, Raphael Emmanuel received appreciable applause, which proved that he had indeed become the friend of Salem that Dr. Rondthaler had predicted.
