Week's News

sians used guns and planes to blast Dnieper River crossings. In the middle of the week Soviet troops captured Kremenchug and Rudnya; captured Krichev in advance toward White Russia and great battle of Kiev roars toward its climax.

IN FAR EAST

Japanese increased forces in Burma; RAF fighters attacked enemy rail and river targets throughout country. Japanese threw 10,000 men against guerrillas behind their lines in northwestern Shantung province; enemy forces checked in central China drive. Allies in Pacific caught Japs napping again at Wewak, sinking seven ships and destroying 60 planes. American planes sank Japanese tanker off Indo-China. Allies on edge of Finschhafen in New Guinea, as Aussies repulse fierce Jap counter-attacks.

IN UNITED STATES

President refuses to discuss probable promotion of General Marshall, as he joins the General and Sect. Stimson in deploring reports of friction in Army high command as harmful to war effort. Western Union-Postal Telegraph merger given final approval by FCC. Thursday Sect. of the Treasury Morgenthau told nation that Americans had gone over the top in their drive to sell 15 billion dollars worth of War Bonds during Third War Loan campaign. Draft of fathers still in dispute in Congress. A gasoline coupon has been raised to 2 gallons per week in Atlantic Seaboard area.

I, who have moved hurriedly,
Am learning now to go
Softly — step by step with stars—
To walk with things that grow.
Step by step with trees and stars,
With grains that pierce the sod;
Surely walking thus I shall
Keep company with God.

New Library Books

James Hilton, is "a simple true story of a Navy doctor from Arkansas, who got his men out of Java through the turmoil of the Japanese invasion . . . The story, based on fact, is told in fiction form, but with no exaggeration of the simple heroism that won for its chief character a tribute from President Roosevelt."

"The Skin of Our Teeth," by Thornton Wilder, a play awarded the Pulitzer Prize in 1942, is an "allegorical play of man through the ages, told as the adventures of the Antrobus family, from the time the great wall of ice creeps over the world to the end of the war—any war."

"The Forest and the Fort," by Herney Allen, is the first in a series of six historical novels about frontier life in America during the eighteenth century.

These are only a few of the many new books available in our library now. Others will appear on the shelves from time to time; so be on the look-out for these important additions to our library.
