Physical Education Department Has Complete Revolution

The Physical Education Department of Salem College has been completely revolutionized from the departments of preceding years. Instead of being placed in a regular physical education class, each girl is now allowed to choose a particular sport that she is interested in and to be taught that sport according to her ability. This year the instructors in the Physical Education Department are Miss Stout, Miss Gueth, and Mrs. Lawson.

A great variety of sports have been offered for the first semester; these include archery, golf, modern dancing, hockey, and tennis. It has also been arranged that the girls who are interested in riding may receive instruction in the afternoons from the Philbrick Riding Academy. A great deal of emphasis will be placed on archery, and the students will be taught to play both on the inside and out of doors. Beginners' golf will be taught here at Salem, while the intermediate and advanced golf classes will be held on the golf course at Reynold's Park. Hockey, tennis, and modern dancing will also be taught on the campus according to the three classes: beginners, intermediates, and advanced pupils. Every afternoon from Monday through Friday a gym lab is held from four to five at which time the four classes are instructed in hockey; this time the members of each academic class play together; Friday afternoon is reserved for the Freshman Class. There are four beginner tennis classes, three intermediate tennis classes, and three advanced tennis classes. Five archery groups are being taught; all five groups are beginners. There are five beginner golf groups; intermediate and advanced golf is also being taught. There are six freshmen hockey groups taught in the morning, and there are five hockey groups taught in the afternoon.

Intramural sports will be emphasized this year, and for the fall semester, tennis and hockey tournaments will be held. Competitors will be the four academic classes: seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen. The tennis tournament, to be held in the near future, will be open only to intermediate and advanced players.

With the revolutionization of the Physical Education Department and its program, it is hoped and believed that more girls will take an active interest in sports at Salem College.

Quinerly Names Hockey Dates

Agnes Quinerly, Hockey manager, announced today that hockey games will soon take the place of the afternoon practices. The first game will be played Thursday, October 24, when the freshmen and sophomores will play. On Monday, October 28, the juniors will play the seniors. Wednesday, October 30, the freshmen will play the juniors. The sophomores will play the seniors on Wednesday, November 4. The sophomores will play the next game with the juniors on November 6. The last game of the hockey season will be the game between the freshmen and the seniors which will be played on Thursday, November 7.

Hockey managers of the class teams are: Ticka Senter, seniors; Helen Spruill, juniors; Peggy Watkins, sophomores; and Gloria Paul, freshmen.

Food will be sold by the Monogram Club at all games. Games will be played at 5.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER STORE

- JACQUARD SWEATERS
- WOOL SKIRTS

You'll love the kinds we sell.

So different

So genuinely worth while

You are not limited to just a few for selection. Here there are hundreds embracing many types and styles as depicted in the better style magazines.

The JACQUARDS SWEATERS of course carry a multitude of motifs picturing names and animals and for that matter "quibs" heard on the campus.

The skirts are fashioned precisely correct some pleated while others are plain but all of them finely needled with plenty of details.

Sweaters for $6.79

Skirts $7.75
