Pinky Scoops News; Sees May Day Mayhem

Some news has it. Some hasn't. That's life.

Has-it news: "important copy, Joe. Mark it 'rush'."

Hasn't news: "ho-hum, another trip with tripe to the printer."

It all depends on—

Who's in the news? Youse?

Roberta Huffman with Penn Hiemes and Betsy McCauley with Bill Clark appear in the cast of "Salem's May-Day Dance."

Sarah Burts with Bobby Gaines attend dance in the new Mayflower Ballroom.

Bob Van Storey escorts Mary Billings to the famed "Gymn's Club."

Genny Beaver and Dick Russell are snapped by photographer of Here and There at Here.

Ruth Lenkowski with Davidsonian Brinegar attend dance near "Softball on the Green."

May and Sally with Bob and Bud make attractive double-couple at the "May-Day Mayhem."

Mary Ann Spillman and Bill Clifford display broad grins at May-Jump Frolics.

Betsy John Forrest appears with Dave Richardson at the premier showing of May-Day evening dresses.

Andy Rivers and Jim Littlejohn tread the boards at "Gymn's at Salem."

Libby Lee and Tommy Moore are spotlighted at the Salem Soiree.

Giddy Reynolds is seen with J. C. Hall in the ballroom of the Ritz-Salem-Who-Has-The-Butter.

Jack Hoke and Gloria Paul give autographs to fans on the terrace of the Pangle Room.

Aviator Vernon Johnson with Peggy Sue Taylor visit the "You Name It Club" near Geith-Stout Field.

Is this news "Has-it News" or is it "Hasn't"? That is the Question of Congestion—at 8:00 Saturday night in the Gymnasium.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Breason Wood, of Lewisburg, W. Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Louise, to Quenton Tracy Brown, of Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y.

Miss Wood, assistant professor in the School of Music at Salem College, was graduated from Brenau and Juilliard, and received her M. A. from Northwestern University.

Mr. Brown is employed at the Western Electric Company in Winston-Salem. The couple will live in Winston-Salem after they are married this summer.

Reverend and Mrs. A. K. Hewitt, of Konnarock, Virginia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Dixon, to Robert Mitchell Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Waters, also of Konnarock, Va.

Miss Hewitt, instructor in Home Economics at Salem for the past two years was graduated from Radford College.

Mr. Waters, now associated with a hosiery mill in Marion, N. C. was recently discharged from the Medical Corp attached to the Marines.

The wedding will take place July 26, 1947. It will be a double ceremony at which time Miss Hewitt's brother and Mr. Water's sister will also be married.

Salem vs Davidson

The clock struck twelve and the buses were loading with Davidsons. It had been a wonderful success this Salem vs Davidson Day. Salem will go down in history this year in the Davidson idea of a good time. The softball game, with Page Jackson and Bill Johnson leading the two teams, was mucho fun for all. Everybody played wholeheartedly and the rest of the gals and guys were rooting hard and loud on the gym steps. After the thrilling game came a very appetizing supper on the hocky field. Everybody ate and ate until they couldn't eat any more. (Weren't the brownies good?) About 8:30 p. m. the two dances were going strong. The square dance seemed to be more popular and then the gang came on down to the Club Dining Room for the round dancing. Did you see Jo Pat jitterbugging? Boy, she was the best she's ever been. Jean and Page looked mighty cute together, as they always do. The other Dungan daughter was having a grand time with "Wes"! Some of the daters at the dance were:

- Jean Griffin vs Ernest Hunter
- Peggy Watkins vs Frank McGee
- Preston Kabrich vs Frank Lemons
- Lou Ogburn vs Dave Crane
- John Witherspoon vs Dot Brannock

- Jo Patterson vs Towns Thomas
- Becky Huggins vs John Carr
- Claire Phelps vs Barry Richardson
- Betty Hatley vs Bill Fesper
- Margret Fisher vs Al Scarborough
- Joy Martin vs Bill Johnson
- Anne Dungan vs "Wes"
- Jean Dungan vs Page
- Tex McCollum vs David McElory
- Jane Smith vs Flyn Long
- Connie Neamand vs Bill Murphy
- Sal Mills vs Lee Watlinham
- Ann Southern vs "Cal"
- Emma Mitchell vs Lamar Williamson

- Mary Bryant vs Maurice Newfell
- Betty Epps vs Earl Groves
- Maria Hicks vs Dave Shepardson

The girls here at Salem finally co-operated beautifully and the boys all had a grand time to be sure. One of the boys told his date to write a notice and put it up on the bulletin board in Main Hall saying that "Salem has the best looking girls I've ever seen!" Doesn't that make us feel great, girls!!! Let's have another Salem-Davidson Day next year or better still let's have one next month!!!
