

Accent On Athletics: Sophomores Win First Game

by Gloria Paul

The first hockey game of the season, a squabble between the freshmen and the sophomores, was, strictly speaking, no hockey game, but a mistake. Fouls were called on every other play; sophomores fell on the ground; too many feet and people were in the way; and the winded individuals gasped as they tried in vain to keep up with the ball. The whole affair was a circus; the observers who sat on the side chewed on candy bars and laughed gaily at every move. The ball must have had invisible wings or a contagious disease.

Amazing as it may seem, the gasping sophomores made two goals and won the game. And all credit for lacking gasps and keeping up with the ball goes to Joan Roeser of the sophomores and to Clinky Clink-scales and Betty Beal of the freshmen.

So hockey is more than a game. If you happen to be interested in comedy and seeing twenty two comedians in action, see the next hockey game.

* * * * *

Horseback riding is being offered, not as circus entertainment, but as just plain entertainment. Each

Russians

(Continued from page one) stands for. If we can keep Europe on her feet until she can help herself (and we are the only people who can do that), then such things as Russia's announcement that her grain production is 57% more than last year, will not have the effect of forcing more people to accept communism as it is intended to do.

It's either Russia or us on that score. If European economies fails, then so do ours—and we are on the way to a depression now. If we fail to keep Russia out of all of Europe then the Comintern will have achieved its goal there and can turn its full forces on us!

week, if you like, you may join a group, headed by Carolyn Dunn, to go riding. One requirement is necessary: sign up in your dorm.

Juniors Top Seniors

The Juniors topped the Seniors, 3-1, in the second hockey game of the season, Thursday afternoon.

The outstanding play of the afternoon was made by Carolyn Taylor who carried the ball 35 yards for a Junior goal.

Day Students Plan Tea

The day students are planning their annual tea for their mothers which is to be held October 29. At a recent meeting, the committees for the event announced.

Frances Sowers is chairman of the refreshment committee. Others on the committee are Gerry Brown, Sally Hartle and Mary Ann Harvey.

The decoration committee includes: Pat Watson, chairman; Sally Ann Brothwick, Anne Wilson, and Susan Spach.

Filler

A Baker, but no bread
A Ballentine, but no beer
A Beck, but no nod
A Hart, but no soul
A Knight, but no day
Land, but no sea.
Pette, but no Varga.
A Piper, but no pipe.
Ruble, but no trash.
Sellers, but no Buyers
A Taylor, but no seamstress.
A Weaver, but no Loom.

Those on the invitation committee are: Mary Jane Snavelly, chairman, Janice Wear, Ann Linville, Anne Coleman and "Nookie" Scott.

Weinland Visits Salem Alumnae

Mr. David Weinland left Wednesday night on a trip north to speak to various Salem Alumnae groups. His message to them will include a statement on the academic life of the school, improvements in the plant and equipment, and status of the fund raising. He will speak to alumnae in Richmond, Washington, Philadelphia and Bethel, Pa.

"CHESTERFIELDS ARE NO STRANGERS THEY'RE ALWAYS WELCOME"

Bring lovely

ALWAYS BUY

A B C

CHESTERFIELD

A ALWAYS Milder
B BETTER TASTING
C COOLER SMOKING

The sum-total of smoking pleasure
They Satisfy

MOTHER - DAUGHTER FASHIONS

PEARLS

Single Strand Graduated
PEARL NECKLACE

by
"MARVELLO"
At A New Low Price

$1

Plus Fed. Tax

COMPACTS

Nationally Advertised

"REX"

All Metal and Enamel

COMPACTS

$1

Values to 2.91

Perfect For Gifts

MAIN FLOOR

Corner Liberty and Third Sts.