

Some Salemites Worked During Spring Break

By Sandra Spear

While many Salem students basked in the Florida sunshine, 11 Salemites spent five grueling days of their Spring breaks representing the German Democratic Republic (East Germany) in the 1978 National Model United Nations in New York City. Joined by faculty advisor Dr. Jerry Pubantz, the students had spent three months preparing for this conference, learning about the United Nations, the topics they would discuss, and the policies of the GDR.

Sandra Spear, Patty Wall, Sabine Brech, Debbie Hall and Katarina Bonde represented the GDR on five committees of the General Assembly, discussing such issues as Apartheid in South Africa, the Middle East situation, a Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty, torture, racism, terrorism, the taking of hostages, and disarmament. Three of Salem's General Assembly delegates held offices in their respective committees: Sandra Spear was one of 17 vice-presidents of the General Assembly Plenary; Debbie Hall was Vice-Chairman of the Legal Committee; Katarina Bonde was Rapporteur of the Special Session on Disarmament.

Jo Beth Allen, Rebecca Lasley, Kathy Echols and Mardi Carr

represented the GDR on three negotiating groups of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), devoted to International Development, Commodities and Transfer of Technology, respectively. Kathy Echols was Rapporteur of Group D (socialist states) in the sub-commission of Commodities discussing the Common Fund.

Susan Robinson and Margaret Alexander represented the GDR

in the Plenary session of the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) and the Commission on Transnational Corporations, respectively. Susan was both Chairman of Group D in ECOSOC Plenary and Rapporteur in ECOSOC Plenary.

Beginning their days at 8 a.m. with delegation meetings, delegates from Salem worked on their respective committees until around midnight most nights, with about an hour each for lunch and dinner. Parties followed the evening meetings, sometimes lasting until 4 a.m. or later, but few complaints were heard about the hours, and even less were heard about the work, as most delegates found that working with other delegates toward common goals was the most fun.

Also enjoyable and enlightening was an hour long briefing session held with two first secretaries of the real

Cont'd. on three

the SALEMITE

Volume LX

Salem College, Winston-Salem, N.C., Friday, March 24, 1978

Number 15

Career Planning & Placement Office

FOCUS -- (Future Opportunities and Careers Under Scrutiny) will be held Thursday, March 30, 6:30 - 8 p.m. in the Club Dining Room. Women representing twenty major career fields will be on campus to talk with students about work in the professional world.

Come have coffee and dessert and take the opportunity to discover new facts about careers that interest you. Sign up sheets for FOCUS will be available in Becky Pack's Office in Lehman Hall. Don't miss out on this chance!!

The Career Planning and Placement Office has planned a number of trips for students to visit local businesses and institutions. The first trip will be Apr. 4 from 10 a.m. - noon to Goodwill Rehabilitation Center. Students will have a tour of the facilities and then will hear from various personnel including a social-case worker, rehabilitation counselor, psychometrist and administrator. Interested students should sign up in Becky Pack's office, Lehman Hall.

Financial Aid Applications for the 1978-79 academic year must be completed and received in the Financial Aid Office by Apr. 15, 1978. Late applications will be processed only after those which were on time have been notified and only if funds are still available.

Honor Society Taps 17 New Members

The Honor Society has selected 17 new members on the basis of their academic standing at the end of the Fall Term 1977. The organization is dedicated to encouraging scholarship; members are required to have completed a specific amount of work with a high quality point ratio.

New members:

Seniors:

Debbie Austin
Idalyn S. Brown
Jane Dittman
Jenny Eury

Carla Chappell Matheson
Karen Pieper
Libby Shull
Susan Thomason

Juniors:

Robin Brown
Connie Caldwell
Diane Callahan

Susan Miller
LuAnne Minor
Kate Wallace

Sophomores:

Rebecca Baggett

Helen Beck
Amy Poteat

Continuing members:

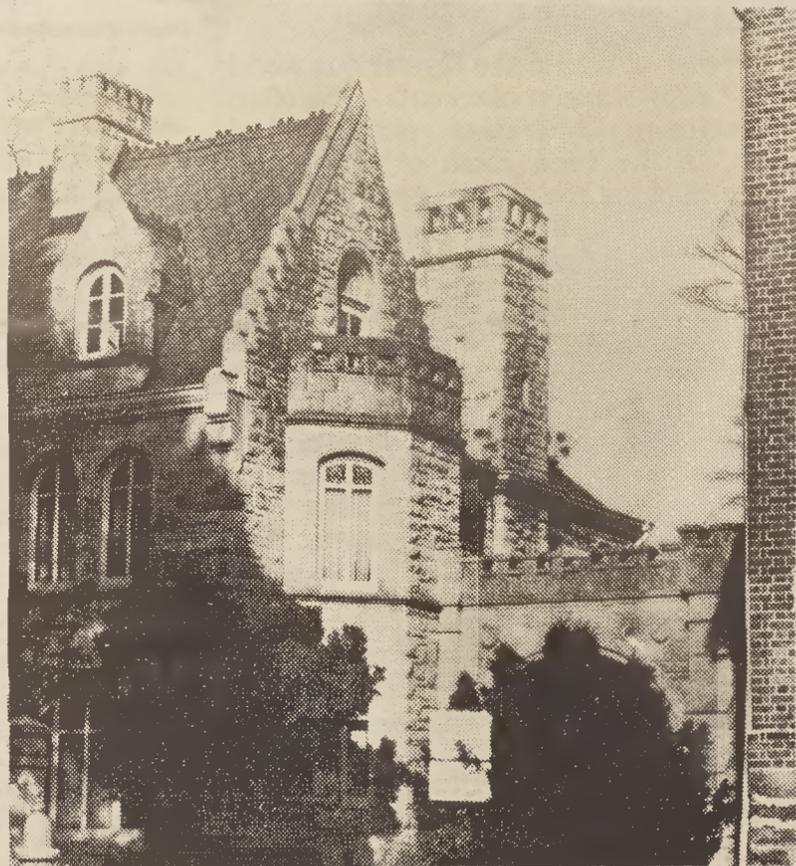

Seniors:

Sandy Brown
Rebecca Dunbar
Suzanne Eggleston

Lisa Greenberg
Margaretta Yarborough

Junior:

Kristine Kylberg

BEHIND CLOSED DOORS -- Have you seen this castle in the Salem community? Find out about its location and function next week. (Photo by Karen Smith)

Publications Board Selects

New Editors, Business Managers Named

Publications Board met March 7 to exercise its duty for the first time of interviewing and selecting Editors and Business Managers for student publications.

Amanda Vannoy, a junior English major, was selected as Editor-in-Chief of The Salemite. She has completed the journalism course which Salem offers and she is taking a course in editing at Wake Forest. Amanda will begin her term as Editor next week.

Freshman Liza Ovington has remainder of this semester. Liza yearbook this year. during the past year. She was chosen to succeed Cameron Harris as Business Manager. During the remainder of this semester, Liza will be learning the procedures and routines of handling The Salemite budget.

Co-editor of the Clubs and Events section of Sights and Insights this year, junior Cathy Wilson has been named the new Editor-in-Chief of the yearbook for next year. She will work with and observe current Editor Robin Sink this spring, and will begin her term next fall.

Anne Carter Craddock, a sophomore, has worked on the Clubs and Events staff of the yearbook this year. She will replace Paula Calhoun as Business Manager for next year.

Sally Jordan was Co-editor of Incunabula this past year, and she has been selected Editor-in-Chief for next year. Sally is a sophomore English and Religion major with two years of experience on this publication. Her Co-editor for this year, Rebecca Baggett, will serve as Business Manager. Rebecca is a rising junior who also has had two years of experience on the staff.