

Journalism Workshop Planned At Wake Forest This Weekend

The 1978 E. E. Folk Journalism Workshop, featuring 14 speakers headed by Clifton Daniel, a former editor of the New York Times, will be held April 7 and 8 on the campus of Wake Forest University.

The workshop is a biannual event endowed by the E. E. Folk fund and established in honor of Professor Emeritus of English E. E. Folk.

Lester Tanzer, managing editor of U. S. News and World Report, will lecture on "Producing the Weekly News Magazine" Saturday, April 8 at 11 a.m. and will participate in a forum discussion with Clifton Daniel on the topic, "Is the Press Becoming Too Powerful?" on Friday, April 7 at 4 p.m.

Daniel will speak at 8 p.m. Friday night in Winston Hall, room A, on "Newspaper Chains: Saviour or Menace."

Other speakers from newspapers in addition to Daniel will be Charles Babcock of The Washington Post on the role of the press in the Korean investigation; George Minot, assistant sports editor of The Washington Post, on sports-writing; Albert R. Hunt, a WF alumnus and National Political Correspondent for the Wall Street Journal, giving "A Journalist's View of National Politics" and Robert Allen, editor of The Wake Weekly, speaking on photo-journalism.

Speakers from magazines will be Staige Blackford, editor of The Virginia Quarterly Review, Bob Hall, managing editor of Southern Exposure, who will speak on "Current Trends in Alternative Journalism," Robert Altman, senior editor of Nation's Business and Tanzer.

Representing broadcasting will be Robert Krulwich, national editor for National Public Radio, giving a talk entitled, "Unfit for Broadcasting," Mary Starrett, anchorwoman of T. V. Eight News on "Is T.V. News Journalism or Show Biz," and Gene Overby, sportscaster for WXII, Channel 12, on "Sportscasting, the Fun Part of Broadcasting."

Reed Kramer, managing editor of The African News, a news bureau out of Durham, will speak on "How a Specialized News Bureau Fills in the Gaps."

The workshop will run from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday afternoon and Daniel will speak that night at 8 p.m. Speakers will resume Saturday morning at 10 a.m. and run through 3 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

April Arts Week

Monday, April 10

Mad Hatters Tea

Back Door Yard 4:30

Wear your craziest hat - a prize given to the most creative hat

Tuesday, Apr. 11

Early morning oranges and canes

Lily Pond 9:30 - 11:30

6:00 cook-out in Maydell

Wednesday, Apr. 12

After dinner dessert with folk singer, Yard behind Alumnae House

Thursday, Apr. 13

Magician, David Garrard

Performance during dinner in refectory

You are cordially invited to attend

SENIOR

SPEAK-OUT

where the seniors tell all

The inaugural of a traditional annual event where the seniors speak their minds on Salem.

Tuesday, April 11th
1:00 P.M.

Hanes Auditorium

NEXT ISSUE:

Moravians and Their Beliefs

Tanglewood Steeplechase

Sociology- Econ. Conference

Forsyth County's
Tanglewood
Park

Presents
The Eleventh Annual
Tanglewood Steeplechase
Saturday, April 22, 1978
Gates Open 10 AM - Post Time 2 PM
General Admission $4 Per Person
Tickets Available On The Campus

Best In Town

PIZZA GARDEN

Great Subs

Corner of Cherry and 30th
Near Coliseum 724-7600

INCUNABULA Deadline

The final deadline for submissions to the spring issue of Incunabula is Monday, April 10, 1978. We would like to encourage all students, faculty, and staff of Salem College to contribute to Incunabula. Submissions may be placed in the Incunabula near the Registrar's office Main Hall or given to one of editors (Sally Jordan in Biting and Rebecca Baggett the Day Student Center) or staff members.

Career Planning & Placement Office

Financial Aid Applications for the 1978-79 academic year must be completed and received in the Financial Aid Office by Apr. 15, 1978. Late applications will be processed only after those which were on time have been notified and only if funds are still available.

Want To Sell Your Carpet, Rug or Bedspreads to Someone for Next Year?

Advertise in The Salemite!

Call Cameron Harris

2nd Biting

JACK BEAL

PRINTS AND RELATED DRAWINGS

A Traveling Exhibition

Wake Forest University

Art Gallery

March 20 - April 16

Organized By Madison Art Center, Madison, Wisconsin

CAMPUS ADS

WANTED: Entertainment and crafts exhibits for April Arts' Festival in the Square, April 22. Fun, food, crafts for sale, and music. Sell your wares for profit. Contact Pam Kimbrell, 723-9913.

Need a passport size picture for passports, graduate and or job applications? Call Pam Snyder at 766-6792. Pictures are $5. Can have ready within 3-5 days.

Wanted:

Someone from this area to act as a substitute organist for me. I play for a Lutheran church nearby and have trouble locating a substitute. The church will pay you for your services. If interested call 727-9472 and ask for Laverne Hales - 316 Clewell.