

James Donlon performs: "Dreams" above, "Chess" right

Photos by Pam Snyder

Mime Theatre

James Donlon, internationally recognized mime and current faculty member at the North Carolina School of the Arts, has performed for universities, high schools, and arts councils since 1970.

This past Tuesday Salem College was the beneficiary of Mr. Donlon's many talents. After an afternoon workshop he performed for a large and enthusiastic audience in Hanes auditorium.

He has toured his one-man shows in Europe, was invited to perform at the 1974 professional theatre schools International Mime Festival, including the Asolo State and has been director of Theatre Company of Florida. Donlon is considered Ringling Brothers, Barnum & by many to be one of the most versatile artists in mime guest taught at several today.

HOCKEY SCHEDULE

Oct. 12-Wake Forest-away- 4:00

Oct. 23-Averett-away- 4:00

Oct. 24-Carolina J.V.-at Wake- 4:00

Oct. 31-Averett-home- 3:45

Salem News

The Pierrette Players will present Blithe Spirit, a comedy by Noel Coward, on October 12-15 at 8:00 p.m. in the Drama Workshop.

Admission tickets will be free to students who make reservations by dialing Ext. 315 or who pick up tickets in the refectory during the week of the performance.

Residents of Winston-Salem will be able to purchase tickets at the door. Adult tickets are $2.00, students $1.50.

Can you remember the dilemma you faced when you were trying to decide which college to attend?

Approximately 100 high school seniors in the same predicament will be visiting Salem on Oct. 15 and 16 for Perspective Student Weekend.

The admissions office hopes these students will get a realistic view of life at Salem. Their schedule will be similar to freshman orientation. The perspective students will stay in the dorms with students who volunteered before Sept. 22.

News Beyond The Square

Vatican City - Cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church have returned within a month to the rituals involved in the task of electing a new Pope. They set the funeral of Pope John Paul I for October 4 and the conclave to elect a new Pontiff for October 14. It appears that the site for the conclave will again be the Sistine Chapel.

Middle East:

Israel - The historic Knesset Debate on the Camp David accords proved to be favorable toward an Egyptian-Israeli Peace Settlement.

Egypt - President Anwar Sadat said Monday that President Carter has accepted an invitation to attend the signing of the Egyptian-Israeli peace treaty.

Wash. - U.S. Authorities said any visit by Carter to Egypt depends on how quickly Egypt and Israel can forge a treaty to end the 30 years of Middle East Wars.

- Talks are to open at the ministerial level in Washington October 12 with a projected settlement by December 17. The United States will be a full participant.

- There are still some reservations over the Camp David accords among other Arab countries.

Missy Littleton

INTERNATIONAL

CLUB

Oct. 12

1:15

206 Main Hall

Panel discussion of study abroad not closed to language majors. All interested in participating

PLEASE come.

Los Amigos

MEXICAN RESTAURANT

The Best in Authentic Mexican Food

Bowl of Chile90
Bean Burrito Plate	1.00
Tostada	1.00
Taco Plate	1.75
Guacamole Salad	1.25
Enchiladas	2.25

3040 Healy Dr.

adjacent to Kelly West Chevrolet & Stratford Rd.