

Last Wills and Testaments

I, Geri Alligood, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to my sisters at Salem:

To my little sisters Gwyn and Sally, I leave two more wonderful years here at Salem—hoping you both have great little sisters! To Toccoa, many more road trips to ECU—with people "of age"—remember the blue light? To Elizabeth Boone and E.T.—Sister's #7, may you have a blast with the Sister's girls (hopefully, you'll use the room more than I did!) Finally to the Hockey Team—best of luck and lots of wins! (King Cobra!)

I, Melissa Beard, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to my sisters at Salem:

To Debbie West, I leave two more rewarding years as a Nutrition major, a fabulous January Term internship at Children's Hospital in Washington (tell everyone hello!), and the hopes for a dietetic internship, and a chance at becoming a great registered dietitian. To Suzanne Moye, I leave a wonderful senior year on 3rd floor Strong, and all the medical students to stare at in the library. To Claire Lashley, I leave a great senior year with road trips to Davidson every weekend, all the good looking guys at Long Beach, N.C. and at last I leave a wonderful friend (keep in touch!). To April Hollman, I leave a great little sister for you, just like you were for me. Take care. To all my sisters on 3rd floor Strong, I leave all the memories and happiness that we shared together. I will miss you all! And finally, I leave Salem.

I, Martha Cockrell, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to my sisters at Salem:

First of all I want to thank my little sisters Amy, Elizabeth, Mary Catherine, and Melanie for making my senior year fantastic. I love you all. To B.R.—the discipline to study before 3 a.m., to S.S.—all of my organizational ability—don't be so "TENSE". To L.W. all the roses you deserve. To J and R I leave you first floor South to litter to your heart's content. To B.S.—all of my vast sexual knowledge (so you can teach M.). To L.E.M. the ability to one day become well-endowed and hairless. To L.R. the Exum name to carry on. To C.T. my painful OV's and "fun" road trips to H'ville. To H.H. an ICBY franchise. To S.W. 100 bottles of sunscreen and an alarm to wake you up. To Penry all the happiness and love you deserve.

I, Clay Corpening, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to my sisters at Salem:

The White Wonder, my 1969 Chrysler New Yorker and all the times we (all of us "Brown-Eyed Gine") FLEW down to Davidson to play with our favorite SAE's. A bottle of Peach Schnapps to drink after future Sophomore-Senior banquet. A few tips on how to improve on procrastination to Christa! A warm and well used seat in the library to meet other Bowman Gray Med students. And finally I leave good luck, happiness and lots more fun times to my little sisters, Hannah and Amy, for when they go to their new co-educational institution.

I, Lisa Councilman, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to my sisters at Salem:

To Karla Caudle, my position as director and coordinator of Lewis Lum's stable. To Caroline Hines, the responsibility for carrying on the spirit of Sisters' Dorm as influenced by the class of '86 and my permission to show "M" all the dirty catalogs. To Cindy Tarrant, my tap dancing skills behind the SGA podium. To Sydma Hutzopoulos, my love, my Velveta dinners, my Porass Bricket cue stick, Margarithaville III, and my thanks for being a wonderful friend. To Lewis Lum, all the Johnny Walker Red that I own, all my old programs, a promise for all you can drink at Rockola, and all my love for being a wonderful friend and professor and for teaching me everything I know about computers; also 150 unsolicited hugs. To Gary Ljungquist, my thanks for all your help and support through some of the roughest times. To Exec. Board of 85-86, all my love and thanks for making this year a success. To Amy Buckius and Lynn Ransom, all my love and best wishes for a very successful future. May your little sisters be as good as you have been to me. To what's left of the volleyball team and Coach McEwen, I leave permission to call Malcolm when you need a scorekeeper. To Nannette and Lee Ellen, my patience with the N.C. Drinking Laws. To Megan Sweeney, the men at Peppertree except Barry and Mike.

I, Lindsey C.DeRosa, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to my sisters at Salem:

Eleanor, Al, Pat, Hanes and the rest of the field hockey team: a great next season but not as great as the one we had! Caroline Hines: two more years with the good doctor and all of the knowledge I don't have about Environmental Design. Gray Carr: plenty more six packs at special occasions and a great little sister. Thanks for a wonderful sophomore/senior. Katherine Skinner: a lifetime membership at the tanning salon of your choice, plus Bain de Soleil bronzer. See ya whitely. Go Lightly Wilson - or Lulu - the best year for you next year so you'll stay. Catherine Penry: someone to talk to on the phone about you know what, another super sophomore/senior when you're a senior, triathletes who train too much, and a wonderful little sister. I, along with Patti Haste, leave to John Rowland more stupid Greek and Roman students who sit on the front row. George McKnight: a lifetime supply of lunch bags and Reynolds wrap, a freshman chemistry classful of students just like me (Don't quit now) Bye George.

I, Lisa Farrior, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to my sisters at Salem:

Jocelyn Rose and Karla Caudle: all the fun that they could possibly have in their last two years at Salem. Lisa Shearin: as many Scooby snacks as she would like during her senior year. Caroline Hines: my red Tretorn sneakers, a door on which she can hang her graduation gown so that she will be boss of the room, a forever clean shower, and all the love she would ever want. Sorry, you don't get Pook.

I, Lenita Eva Maria Fredrikson, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to my sisters at Salem:

To "Auntie Am" Erika and Elizabeth, Invitation: Salmon and snails at Cafe Opera, Stockholm 12 28 86. Restrictions on dessert are repudiated. To Julie, Sarah J. and Kristi, aim at the stars and you'll reach the top of the trees; don't be idle. To Brett, lots of love and the Ms. America title. To Miki, Sarbari, Yung Ling and Julia, my island in the Baltic Sea is waiting for y'a. To Andrea and Monica, authority to include Or. . . in your possessions while I'm gone. Bonne Chance! To Fireball, remember the key words in every professional milieu: HUR MAR DU? JAG MAR BRA. To Salem College, genetic reproduction machines for optimal multiplication of Sarah Fulcher genes. To the history department, please accept my gratitude, appreciation, and a new set of history maps. To Nannette, thanks for sharing, caring, and smelly feet. Our European trip with my TALL, BLOND, BLUE-EYED BOY-FRIENDS will test you on your comprehension of my intense instruction of Swedish morals and end your consultation of Life With Men: New Ways of Enjoying Yourself. Be prepared.!

I, Laura Pat Gaskill, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to my sisters at Salem:

To Malinda "Sedgewycke" McCall my future stockholding in the MTV conglomerate and the memories of a wonderful relationship over the past two years. Not only that, but to her I also leave the memory of the Sting concert and a certain hacking cough which produced a semi-disasterous result in the backseat of my concert-mobile, which nearly "did in" Jennifer Parsons, our partner in crime! (Ignore the "sound mind" part of this bequeathment, dear little sis! We both know, it's a Communist fairy tale!)

I, Julie Harrower, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to my sisters at Salem:

Katherine Skinner, I leave memories of my being a "snotty Lovett girl" and many more rides to Atlanta with cool tunes (Chaka Kahn). To Stacy Little, I leave two more years at Layton Field with many more cute freshman players to drool over. I also leave her with 2 more great years at Salem and hope they were as great as mine. I'm gonna miss you little sister! To Laura Howe I leave her one more year with Mrs. Wilson alone! Good luck. To Jennifer I leave and wish I were in Atlanta with you at P'tree Cafe.

I, Patti Haste, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to my sisters at Salem:

To Katherine Skinner I leave the bathroom in the maids closet in Sister's Dorm to be her personal (and private) facility! Let her rip Katherine! To Laura Howe I leave more of the best looking guys in Winston-Salem (Huey, Luey & Dewey). I also leave her my life—I owe ya one ha! To Lulu Wilson I leave a steamboat and I hope you go to heaven—but I doubt you will! To Megan Sweeney with whom I share the ability to "bite the dust" I leave all of my grace and poise. I love you Ween! To Jenny Foster, my wonderful little sister, I leave dreams of a wonderful
