

I, Cindy Shell, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath a hotpot and my Pro-Choice bumper sticker (ha!) to my dear, tolerant roommate Cathi. Best wishes to Michelle J. and Sarah D. and another ironingboard evening. To Carol I leave a place to visit. I also leave my professors and friends many thanks for teaching me to think, and allowing me to grow.

I, Jill Starling, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to the cross-country team a map of the race course so none of you will ever get lost during a race! To Betsy Van B, I leave an open invitation to visit me an UNC. Good luck at Salem. I hope you love Salem as much as I have. To Dansalems, I leave a blank check so you can purchase all the bright and wild costumes you want. I have had a great four years!

I, Kathryn Swing, being of sound mind (don't even say it, Laura!) and body, do hereby bequeath the following: to Laura N. and Michelle I leave behind the many memories of the Pit and Corbins (hope you can make it back there sometime in the near future Michelle!). I also leave behind the things for ya'll to steal -- you better be careful!! I also leave an endless supply of beanie weanies for late nights (I'll be sure to stock my apartment next year!!) Laura, I leave you a recording contract...sing our song well!! I also leave you both a gift certificate at a men's clothing store, please buy John some new clothes!!! I also leave you another weekend at Bud Fest, the capability to deal with all the rednecks and a pair of boxing gloves to wear when you go out at night!! Laura, don't _____ anybody up!! Lastly, I leave you both two more great years here at Salem, take advantage and have a blast. I'll miss ya'll a lot, but remember I'll still be here so you better come visit. I love ya'll!!! To Gaither I leave many more nights at the Pit along with the conversations we had while we were there. You enlightened me and gave me insight into interesting topics and had the right answers to all my "questions." Keep the tradition going and remember..."Never say Never!!!" I love you little nerd and will miss you next year. To Lara I leave you my identity for future use and all the wonderful times we've had. Thanks for being a wonderful little sister and for all the smiles that cheered me up or let me know what a special friend you are. I love you and will miss you lots! To Lranks (Laura Franklin for those of you who don't know her by her real name) I'm leaving behind my bad attitude and moodiness...no more Swing temper!, the responsibility to someone who will take care of you on future bus mixers, at the Pit and various other places, late nights at Mr. Omlette along with a generous amount of cabfare, a WATTS line, a yearly pass to Busch Gardens and Six Flags, a gas mask, a lifetime supply of Mr. Pibb and Mich Dry, Pizza Hut, David H. and piggy back rides around Salem, a Wizard of Oz video, "The Lion Sleeps Tonight," many late nights, a place to stay next year, and last but certainly not least...my intelligence!!!! Thank you for helping me make my senior year one I'll never forget. You've been a wonderful friend and little sister. Make the most of these next two years and have a great time doing it. I love you and will miss you lots!!!

I, Tammy Taylor, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave to my three wonderful little sisters - Lynne Pate, Key Whaley, and Kathie White - the ability to be a GREAT big sister next year, and hope you have little sisters that are as wonderful as you three are! To Noel and Mary Stuart, I leave my wonderful babysitting job. To Cass, I leave a great big HELLO! To Spaz, Amanda, and Hillary I leave three more absolutely wonderful years at Salem. To all the members of Fremdendienerin, I leave you lots of fun meetings, tours, and overnights (and a great admissions staff!) To Tricia I leave lucky #7 Sisters with all of her creaks, cracks, and character. To Camille Flippin, leave lots of enthusiasm to undertake her student teaching and her senior year. To Mary Alston, I leave You many more fun stays at the Town and Country Hotel (and the mystery man in the bed!!!) To Joanna May, I can only hope that her bright and cheerful face will greet others as she has greeted me. To Kristy Royall, I leave more fun visits to Goldsboro! To Kelly Radcliff, I leave good stories about dates! To Laura Franklin, I leave best wishes for a successful year as CAC Chairman. To Mindy McLarty, I leave a big hug, and big dreams and can only hope you enjoy your last year at Salem as much as I have. And to Dr. Booth (remember you can't hide from me!) I leave lots of smiles and laughter and a few feathers... Thanks so very much for all your help, guidance, and advice! To Salem College, I leave the very best four years of my life. You've given me the chance to grow and learn, the ability to fall and jump right up and brush it off, and most of all I leave thanks for giving me the best of friends (Christy, Julie, Heather, Kristen, Strat, and Siri), I'll NEVER forget you, nor will I forget my senior year in Sisters Dorm...All you guys are the BEST!!!

I, Karen Timmons, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to my little sister Jacquelin Whitaker a wonderful little sister to brighten her day with the sunshine in her smile. To Nancy Jeanrenaud, I leave memories of days watching the red architecture, and the hope that your senior year is filled with as wonderful memories as mine has. To Karen Elsey I leave the advice, "hang in there, you will make it." To Dr. Howe, Dr. Hammond, and Dr. Farris, thanks for supporting me in all my endeavors and showing me there is a light at the end of the tunnel. And to DAS, all my love and support (whether you want it or not), I will always be your friend forever and ever.

I, Siri Wilkins, leave to: Angie Shotts and Betsy Saxman a towel turban to wear to bed on drunken nights (Thank you!) Kelly Sharpe, a room on first floor so she won't fall down anymore stairs (poor Gary), a bigger pot for the Banana tree, and a request for you to call collect (if I have a job). Susan Yu and Anne Bumgardner, a database file on the computer and all my support in the coming year.

I, Mary Elizabeth Wilson, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to all future hermits, a quiet hiding place in the library basement and a cozy spot in front of the television for those, desperately, needed study breaks.

I, Lynn White, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to Karen Elsey a lifetime membership in "The Society Against Lewis Binford", the purple pigeon, the visions of sugar cake dancing in your head, and a 25 pound bag of clay. To my little sister, Elizabeth Fennel, I leave best wishes for awesome junior and senior years. Enjoy the Salem difference! To Signe Berg, I leave a step-by-step guide to making a "Kidney" pot. To Nancy J., I leave a year's supply of pop-tarts and my back seat position in the row boat. I leave a guardian angel to watch after Erin Brennan and the other
