

Senior Last Wills

I, Beth Brown, being of sound mind and petite body, do bestow to the following: Anu I wish you luck in your job as President of Strong. I know you'll do a great job. I hope you have a house council as wonderful as mine was. The members of my house council (Karen and Ha, who will leave with me, Dena, and Anu) I leave you with fond memories. We did it! We came through when it seemed all the odds were against us. Thanks for hanging in there with Cathy and me. Beth - the other half of Beth². We've been through a lot this year. I give to you my paint pens so you can make dot flowers, until you drop. Signe, I'm gonna say it again, I'm so glad you and Beth drug me to that TKE party. I give to you a huge beer mug and a never ending party tape. Cathi, that wild and crazy girl from Mississippi (great people come from that state!), I leave you music and laughter and a little black book to keep all those boyfriends straight! Nancy thanks for all your smiles and encouragement. To my little sisters, Karen and Lynne, stay sweet! I hope you have little sisters as nice as you. Babe, stay cool Baby C. And to Salem I leave a few things I came with and no longer want or need: long hair with curls, little girl ways, Marvin, and doubts of my abilities. I will be forever grateful for all you have taught me both in the classroom and out.

I, Barbara Burby, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to: Babe Carter a VIP pass and platinum Visa Card for exclusive use at Peaches, and my black Lamborghini with a certain Irishman for permanent escort. Anu Sharma, my super-cool Indian pants, a life supply of cream rinse, and a free subscription to "Indian Barbie's Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous." Nancy Jeanrenaud, my extensive collection of foreign language dictionaries. Babe, Anu, and Nancy: The Deed, Keys, and Secret Location of my library apartment-suite.

I, Virginia Carter, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: to Babe, a permanent table at every restaurant in town, all the scampi you can eat at Red Lobster, and an awesome senior year! To Anu, all the money I owe you for babysitting my sister and a lifetime supply of "soul food"! To Nancy J., a new walking buddy. To Laura J., backstage passes to Kenny and Dolly and no more visits to Dr. Johnson. To Michelle G., all my pink clothes. To Holly H., a role on "Days of Our Lives" as Kayla's twin sister! To Susie M., something old, something new, something borrowed, and something blue!

I, Amy Cass, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following: To Patricia and Karen lots of stressful situations and moments, many late nights, a stocked refrigerator, and the best of luck and success on The Salemite. To Paige and Denise Kappa Sig parties and memories, the O-Pit, the LTD, Burger King late night, backing up in the middle of a major street, and lots of thanks for all your help on The Salemite. Mary Alston a date and future marriage with Mr. G, the Deke fraternity, and a great senior year. Libby Brown your L.L. Bean jacket and jean jacket (wherever it may be, Pixie, Dixie and Trixie, a headline "Balls Bouncing Again," a Jimmy Buffett concert and upside down Margarittas, another Deke Hurricane party with Boxcar, zip, button, button, button, Camp Miniwanca memories, and lots of fun times in the past and lots to come in the future. 1989 Miniwanca campers sand in your shoes, an 18 hour bus ride, Old Baldy, a slumber party in Bay D, John's crack, the Miniwanca mall, and Pepperdine boys. Dr. Farris a position as a guest speaker in my Woman's Studies class, an extra pair of panty hose, my treat to lunch, plans of the future, and a final thanks for being an excellent advisor and a super friend. Laura or "Cranky Franky" a swim in the fountains, the O-Pit, a walk home, Peace Merita, "The Lion Sleeps Tonight," sing-a-longs, a game of Spit, our sofa, a key to Sisters, and lots of luck and fun in the future. Gaither Interclub '89, a date with New York, memoris of Wyoming, Randy Traivs sing-a-longs, your vocabulary of strange phrases and words, "we have 3 female caucasians," baby talk, your back pack on both shoulders, and lots more memories, good luck and much love. Michelle a Connell's concert, a long, rough trip to Raleigh, NCSU Delta Sigs, talks of G'boro boys, the O-Pit, the Kappa Sigs, scary movies, water fights, saltine crackers, Chuck, 'Strapiuninus,' many memories and lots of love. Laura or Little Lou a Fall Fest pre-party, stolen signs, saltine crackers, a double date with

Will and Mike E., the O-Pit, lots of rides home, 'Strapiuninus,' a long fall out of your jeep, lots of talks, and much, much more. Thanks for being a great little sister and best friend. I'll miss you, but always remember I LOVE you!

I, Virginia Crable, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following to: Gaither Smoot and Libby Brown - my intolerance for your laughter or air action during CAC functions in the refectory. And the Top Five AHP's at Salem - my 76 Toyota in exchange for the Lemans. including the granny shoes. Mary Stuart Brugh - a happy senior year. Gayden Plowman and Paige Niles - be better big sisters than I was. Jessica Lynch and Sarah Laughery - a kiss and a hug for being so sweet. Libby - I leave you also with my famous, or should I say infamous question, "Did he touch your boob?"

I, Sue Ellen Crocker, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to my roommate Andie Foster a cellular phone with a WATTS line, a Trust Fund for the phone bill, colored prophylactics, a new car and a new wardrobe, a house, a lifetime supply of diapers, and a lifetime supply of bubblegum. To my little sister Mary Gwen, I leave the ability to always "smell it," a years supply of Vodka, a wonderful little sister, and two more years of endless laughter and good times. To Katherine White, I leave a car, a personal banker, and a date to every dance. To Camille Eggleston, I leave a place of residence in Raleigh, preferably close to Mike and a scented candle. To Mary Alston Glenn, I leave a fun, relaxing senior year. To Paige Parker, I leave free flights to Colorado, a Mr. Wizard Calculator and a lot of patience. To Ashley Neil, I leave a flashback, Chuck's red stallion, and a foursome in Wrightsville Beach. And to my adviser Mary Ann Garcia, I leave a list of all my jokes and a group of good advisees. Thank you for everything, Ms. Garcia.

I, Leigh Cubitt, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my tennis blues to Jennifer King. Memories of NACA to Flash and Tuck. Best wishes to Carolyn and Julie- I know you'll do great! To Anna and Cain - thanks for being such awesome little sisters - have super junior and senior years.

Remember to keep a smile on your face and a prayer in your heart. And last, but definitely not least, to my little sister CeCe, I leave just a small portion of my love for Salem and incredible passion for true friendship. Make the memories last! I love you all, Leigh, "Lou," and "Peeve."

I, Meredith Davies, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to Barbara my brother in exchange for yours! I also leave you Salem and thoughts and memories of two wonderful years. These next two years will be some of the best of your life, so have fun. I'm really going to miss you. You're the best little sis. To Katy, my hockey buddy. I leave you my last unfinished Spring Garden Beer Card, may you have as much fun finishing it as we did starting them. I also leave you lots of fun and games with lizards, sharks, and tanks. I'll miss you shark keeper....rudolph! To Big Nerd and Sooz, be in Boston after graduation and you can have them. To Ashley Pruitt I leave my Billy Ocean tapes. To Gaither a Dr. Pepper Shot! To Betsy I leave you third floor South and hopefully room 303. Tear it up and have as much fun as we did doing it.

I, Mathilde Dumond, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath lots of silly and serious things to the following people: Signe Berg, my marvelous athletic ability (especially in Field Hockey) and the other half of our position as half-back. Anna Harris, the Catholic Student Association to keep afloat; a treasure chest full of money; a slinky dress for your "10" figure; and a Brigid doll during your tough times next year. Brigid Viguerie, the Louisiana legacy at Salem College-make our state proud; an Anna doll to take to Europe, and also the Catholic Student Association. Jill Webb, my red plaid shorts; a NEW CAR fully equipped with driving lessons, curb feelers and NO DOZE; a years supply of sallaque for that Marilyn Monroe hair-do; a glass for every restaurant in town; and a little bit of shyness in case of an emergency. Libby Brown, snap-on plastic knees for every time you destroy the one's you have; ballet lessons from me to improve your coordination; a LITE beer from Miller; and a new wind-breaker with "Married" on it. Tracy Coltrane, my seat on the