

Salem Athletics Start the Year Right

'E' Team Brings Home the Ribbons

by Melissa Murray
The Salemite

The Equestrian team is off to a running start this semester. The first show of the season was held at Ceder Hollow Farm on Saturday, September 29th. The places are as follows:

- Joan Pearce: 1st, 3rd, 3rd, (Reserve Champion)
- Meiissa Murray: 3rd, 5th
- Anne Harvey: 3rd, 5th
- Jennifer Aber: 4th
- Valerie Wickersham: 1st
- Holly Hudnor: 2nd, 5th
- Coleen MacDonald: 5th

Everyone who rode came back to campus with a ribbon! This semester the Equestrian team is filled with talented riders whether they are veterans or beginners with lots of potential. The semester is shaping up to be a very exciting one. If you would like to share in the excitement, please feel free to join us at our next show on October 27.

Team jackets are here!!! Please come and pick yours up from Melissa in 204 South before Fall Break. After that time they will not be available until next semester.

Tennis Team Begins Swinging

by Jennifer King
The Salemite

The Salem College Tennis Team spent a weekend in Raleigh at the Meredith College Tennis Tournament. The team did very well, especially considering that many of their competitors were on athletic scholarships.

Representing Salem was Jennifer Pratt, Gretchen Nachtigal, Hope Lamm, Jennifer King, Angela Aaron, Margaret Lamm, and Lisa Findlay. Jennifer Pratt and Gretchen Nachtigal made it to the semifinal rounds, Jennifer King lost in the finals, and Hope and Margaret Lamm made it to the semifinals in doubles. The team had a lot of fun hanging out in Raleigh with Coach McEwen.

Editors' Note: Jennifer King won the Wake Forest Intramurals - Single Women's Tennis on October 8.
