

THEY NEVER GET TOO OLD

Mrs. D. M. Herlocker, mother of Bro. Henry Furr, reminds her son that, although he may have been married 50 years, he still isn't too old to get a spanking. The photo was taken Sunday, March 27 at the Furr home during the Golden Wedding celebration. Mrs. Furr, seated at right, seems to be enjoying the position in which her husband is placed. ventions unapplied and cities unbuilt. He left mind and character unperfected that we might really be the children of God—created in His own image with latent powers to take the 'raw materials' and put the old world together.

Some people may not believe all they hear, but are very fond of repeating it.

The wisdom of God is shown in that He left the world unfinished that we might have the interest and delight in taking the 'raw material' and putting the world together. He left the oil in the trap rock, the aluminum in the clay, the paper in the pulp, the electricity in the clouds. He left the forest unfelled, the mountains unsurvey-ed, the canals undug, the tunnels unbored. He left the fields unplowed and unplanted. He left the music unwritten, the poetry undreamed and the dramas unplayed. He left in-
