

BAILEY HIGH SCHOOL APRIL 30, 1934

SENIOR CLASS OF 1934

Eleanor Finch, president of the senior class of '34 was born in Nash County on Sept. 16, 1917. She entered school at Mt. Pleasant when she was 6 years old. She continued school through the seventh grade at that school and then came to Bailey High School. Here she made grades which entitled her to be valedictorian of her class. The class is very proud of her and hopes that her plans for the future will be successfully developed.

"He who labors diligently need never despair; for all things are accomplished by diligence and labor" - Menander.

Renelle Pwrry, born in Nash County on Sept. 16, 1918 entered school at Bailey High School in 1924. She was lucky not to have to change schools before she became a senior. As a sophomore, she was president of her class; as a junior, vice-president and as a senior, secretary. She has great ambitions, but as yet has not decided in which field to take up her work. Highest among her aims is that of becoming a nurse.

"I know no such thing as genius; it is nothing but labor and diligence" - Hogarth

Lillie Mae Smith was born at Pikeville, Wayne County, May 5, 1917. At the age of six, she entered the first grade at Bailey. She then returned to her birthplace and completed the fourth grade and fifth grade. She has made a grade a year and is a senior of Bailey this year. She is hoping to enter N. C. W. this fall.

GRADUATION EXERCISE

The high school commencement will come to a close on Tuesday Evening May 1. The class day exercises will be presented at 8 P. M. and followed by the commencement address by Judge Herriot Clarkson. We will have as guest of honor at this time Judge Connor who is also a member of the Supreme Court.

Presentation of Diplomas and Seventh Grade certificates will follow the address.

HIGH SCHOOL CLOSING EVENTS BEGIN

In the high school auditorium Sunday morning Dr. A. D. Wilcox President of Louisburg College preached the 1934 baccalaureate sermon to the fourteen members of the graduating class and a large audience. In a most impressive manner Dr. Wilcox told the graduating class that to succeed in life one has to be a man or woman with a spirit--that knowledge was nothing unless one knew how to use what he had learned. Each girl and boy must be a person who thinks, plans and schemes he cannot wait as a dead piece of machinery to be fired into action by electricity.

During the processional played by Miss Privette, the glee club marched to their places by the Chief Marshal, Raymond Potter who ushered in the members of the graduating class who were dressed ap-

(continued on page 4)