

FATHER - SON BANQUET

Bailey Chapter of the Future Farmers of America held their Father-Son Banquet here Wednesday night, March 6, The outstanding guests were Mr. C. H. Walker, principal of the Bailey High School, Mr. H. E. Rogers, athletic coach and high school teacher; Mr. A. B. Farmer, chairman of local board and the other members of the board Mr. J. Henry Vaughn, chairman of Nash County Commissioners, with the other commissioners; Mr. G. L. Jones, Chairman of Nash County Board of Education with his board; Mr. H. E. Alphin, Nash County Agent Mr. L. M. Stanton, Assistant county agent, Vocational Agriculture teachers and their delegates; Mr. W. E. Fenner and Mr. Claude Abernathy, State representatives from Nash County; Dr. Wame Anderson, district Veterinarian; and Mr. E. H. Meekins.

Different speakers gave splendid short talks. Among Mr. Fenner's statements were: "Nash County is the most outstanding county in North Carolina in the way of Agricultural education,"; "The happiest life in the world is farm life."; "Godliness, honesty and appreciation make a good reputation for any farm boy."

The program was carried out very successful by E. C. Griffin Jr., Charles Medlin, Albert Lamm, Thelbert Boykin, Cecil Brantley, Richard Stott, and Norman Patterson.

The Bailey Chapter wishes to give thanks to the Economic girls and Mrs. H. E. Rogers, their Home Economics teacher, for helping make the banquet a successful one.

W. M. MANNING'S Store

BAILEY, N. C.

Give Me Liberty or give Me death! - Patrick Henry

A FRIENDLY HOUSE

Let me have a small house,
Not large or spacious or tall,
Where children, men, dogs, and
* all Are welcome, Spring, Summer, Winter, and Fall.

A small white house with a friendly face,
With a cherry greeting for one and for all,
Not only for the riding ones who call.
But for the plodding, stumbling,
walkers who fall.

Beside the house is a shady glen,
Where a tumbling brook rolls swiftly along,
Spreading its bit of sunshine
in merry song,
Comforting each and everyone who stop the day long.

Please help me keep unkindness
away from my house, Where all men are welcome to dine;
This lovely, smiling, friendly
house of mine,
Surrounded by God's love for all mankind.

Christine Finch

R. A. McCOMES

HARDWARE

PAINT

FARMING

IMPLEMENTES

BAILEY, N. C.