Continued from Page 3

After we have summed up these three important factors, we must list the requirements of about three of our occupational interests. Then to one of these occupations our abilities, interosts, and aptitudes will balance. Thus we will have determinded the correct profession for us to enter in order to make our future a success.

Senior Superlativos

Most Cooperative -----Eunico Pecle Cutest ------Eunico Pecle and Louise Brantley Most Popular -----Cecil Brantley and Helen Jordan Quictest -----Billy Dew

SENIOR HONORS

Georgo Lee Bissotte

During the years of 139 and 140, there have been quite a few honors bestowed upon varicus members of the senior class. These things that are called honors now will be even more important in the coming years when the seniors of today begin to look back into the past and think of the many happy days spont together in high school.

The senior class is proud of Guy Bissette and Easter Poarl Lamm, who at the ond of the basketball season were awarded individual henors for their splendid playing throughout the year. Guy was declared, "All county foreward and Easter Pearl was declared "A county guard" on the Nash County asket ball team.

"helbert Boykin has also won 'miration of the senior class by taking part in so many activities throughout the year. Thelbert is Eresident of the Bota Club, Vice- President of the Agriculture Chapter, and for two years has served as president on the Nash County F. F. A. federation. Thelbert has also accomplished some other outstanding work in his class activities throughout his school days.

Helen Jordon, Vice-President of the senior class, was declared "AM Americam Canidate of the girls; Givision" in the Gold Modal Basket Ball Tournement held at Rocky Mount this year. Helen and two other seniors, Louise Brantley and Easter Peral Lamm, were selected as members of the "All Tourney Toum," at Rocky Mount.

There are three members of the senior class who have attended regularly for eleven consective years, Lois Johnson, Elmo Bissette, and Wilbur Bissette.

