

SENIOR PLAY, "ADORABLE", RECEIVES HIGH PRAISE FOR PERFORMANCE

NEWS BROADCAST BEGUN

The first of a series of broadcasts of school news to be given each Friday morning during the third period was presented over the Sound System on January 3. The senior class gathers this news and selects a different person each week to act as announcer.

These programs are designed to give the students a fuller understanding of the activities carried on within the school as well as to give them useful information from time to time.

Mr. Walker states that the programs will continue as long as interest is shown in them.

BAILEY BUGLE RECEIVES RECOGNITION

The staff of the Bailey Bugle announces that the school paper recently received recognition in two widely known magazines, The National Beta Club Journal and The State Magazine. From the National Beta Club Journal comes the following item: "This neatly mimeographed nineteen page paper is the joint project of the Beta Club and the Journalism class. It has fairly even margins and makes a pleasing impression.

"The staff of three artists has done some commendable work in ads, illustrations and headlines. The style of reporting is good also, for which Editor, Sidney Jones, the department editors, and the various reporters deserve praise."

The State Magazine states: "The Bailey Bugle is full of all kinds of Christmas suggestions and stories. We particularly like the list of questions about Christmas." There followed a list of questions taken from the school paper.

CAST OF CHARACTERS WELL CHOSEN

Seniors of Bailey High School presented their annual play, this time entitled "Adorable", a comedy of youth, on January 24 in the high school auditorium before an interested audience. Judging from the enthusiastic remarks of the audience the play was a great success. Some of the teachers who saw the play agreed it was one of the best performances that they had ever witnessed at Bailey.

Everyone said that the cast chosen were well suited for the parts they portrayed. The cast was as follows: Ruth Noble, Josephine Lamm; John B. Stoddard, Sidney Jones; Betsy Bogart, Rosalie Earp; Jimmie Hester, Randolph Dew; Alex Cameron, W. S. High; Ruth Hanna, Ruth Bissette; Vara Hanna, Rachel Bissette; Ray Norton, Brooks High.

Total receipts amounted to twenty-two dollars. Any school child was admitted free if accompanied by two adults. This encouraged many students to be present.

WORLD'S FAIR MOVIE SHOWN

Approximately 300 students of Bailey High School saw the highlights of the 1939-1940 World's Fair in a technicolor movie in the school auditorium January 6. In the picture was shown a large part of the fair, including the outside views of many of the foreign buildings, the Army and Navy day parades, Billy Rose's beautiful aquacade, the famed parachute jump, a brilliant display of fireworks, and a beautiful pagent depicting the history of the railroad. After the show Mr. Robert E. Roth, director of the picture, showed to the audience a small group of curios, among them an Eskimo husky, an ostrich egg, and several other articles.
