

ATHLETES RECEIVE LETTERS

Bailey's first letters will be given the following basketball players for having met necessary requirements: Estella Eatmon, Mario Morgan, Maebelle Bissette, Isabelle Vick, Josephine Lamm, Reta Mae Finch, Mary E. Jones, Rachel Jones, Irene Bissette;

Jack Farmer, Thad Jernigan, James Brown, Louis Bissette, Kenneth Farmer, Thomas Finch, Charles Modlin, and Albert Lamm.

They are expecting to receive the letters soon. Large gold "B"'s trimmed with green will "be the stuff" on sweaters the teams are planning to order.

JUNIORS SELECT RINGS

The juniors selected the class rings on March 11, 1941. The vote for the rings was unanimous. Rings will be delivered early next fall. If a deposit of $1.50 before July is made, a free gift will be given to the persons making deposits.

ZELDA MURRAY WINS TRIP TO FLORIDA

Zelda Murray, outstanding student of the class of '39, has recently had a free trip to Florida as a result of winning out in a competitive essay contest. For the past two years Zelda has been a member of the Cullowhee debating team which has entered the debating contest held each fall at Rock Hill, South Carolina.

ATTRACTIVE NOTE BOOK MADE BY AMERICAN HISTORY CLASS

The class in American History has just finished writing a short booklet on the presidents of the United States. A sketch of the life of each president was made by the pupils in the class, each pupil being assigned a different president. Each of these sketches is compiled in an attractive hand designed notebook made of plywood.
