SNOOPING SAM

How long will it be before Mrs. Howton becomes a member of the faculty? She has substituted in almost every department.

My! Can't Stella escape in a hurry when she wants to?

What have Hildred and Sarah Morgan suddenly found so valuable in their locker that they have to lock it?

Why does Iris hate "I Don't Want to Set the World on Fire"?

What four people had a lot of fun on a dark night last summer by sitting on tombstones?

How many times has Marks played "Chattanooga Choo Choo"?

For a newcomer, Howard Barnes is attracting a lot of attention.

Why does Miss Quinn like to "talk with her hands" in public, now?

Who taught Thad to swing the girls in the Hula-Hula fashion?

I wonder why certain Junior girls like to ring the church bell to usher in 1942?

The auditorium piano was nearly always busy when Jessie got back from lunch early, and there usually was a crowd around, but that is all stopped now.

Mrs. Farmer certainly broke up a little play house in the back of her 11th grade French class, didn't she? and if you ask me, in the front of the room too.

Ask any senior what skilled labor is. Perhaps they have all found out the definition by this time.

Wonder how Charles D. knows the depth of Josephine's new dress pockets.
