

SENIORS TO PRESENT "MAMA'S BABY BOY" FEBRUARY 6

Comedy is again coming to the stage of Bailey High with the production of the Senior play, "Mama's Baby Boy", on February 6. The plot centers about a "rather middle-aged" widow who tries to get her eighteen-year old son to act as a fourteen-year old boy so that she may marry a younger man. The whole play is one roll of laughter piled on the other, and ends in everyone's pretending he is younger than he really is.

Leading roles are to be taken by Elsie Mae Pace, playing the part of the "young widow"; Braxton Honeycutt, her son; and Stephen Earp her beau.

School Establishes Minimum Requirements For Journalism Awards

TOWN LIBRARY RECEIVES DONATIONS

Donations totaling sixty dollars were received by the Bailey Town Library recently. The donations were made by three townsmen, J. W. Privette, W. H. Farmer, and W. R. Parson. Mrs. Lewis, librarian, states that this money will be used in the most practical way to increase the assets of the library. Pupils will receive benefits from these gifts if they take advantage of the opportunities offered by the library.

MR. INSCOE TEACHES CLASS

Sixty Bailey women are attending First Aid classes conducted by Mr. Inscoe.

Miss Jane Lackey, along with Mrs. Farmer and Mrs. Underwood, represents the faculty at these meetings. Two twelfth grade girls are also attending.

THREE MEMBERS MEET STANDARDS

As an award for meritorious service done in connection with the publication of the BUGLE, the school is offering a journalism pin to any student meeting the minimum standards of requirements.

Present eligibility is based on the number of inches of material secured, drawn, or written. One thousand inches of ads secured, one hundred and fifty inches of written material, one thousand inches of drawings done on the mimeoscope, one thousand lines of titles cut, or a combination of these inches will merit a pin.

ADDED REQUISITES

Beginning with the February issue certain additional requirements must be met. The attitude towards work, promptness of material, responsibility assumed, and the initiative taken will be included. Moreover the correctness of typing, spelling, counting, and English used will be graded by the advisers.

STUDENTS ELIGIBLE

To date Marks Underwood, Christine Finch, and Sidney Jones are eligible for pins.

TWELFTH GRADE LEADS IN STAMP PURCHASE

Following the suggestion made by Mr. Walker that every student purchase a defense stamp each member of the twelfth grade has made his purchase and plans to finish a five dollar book as soon as possible in order to do his part for Uncle Sam. Close behind these students the eleventh grade has 30 who have made their purchase. In the near future it is hoped that everyone will have begun his collection of defense stamps.
