"Bailey Bugle" Rates First In C.S.P.A. Contest

RESULTS REPORTED IN NATIONAL MAGAZINE

The Bailey Bugle received a first place rating in its class according to the official announcement made at the C.S.P.A. Convention in March, officers of the paper learned Monday, March 23.

As soon as the scoring sheet arrives, students will learn the number of points scored out of a possible 1,000.

Complete contest and convention reports are contained in the April School Press Review.

The Columbia Scholastic Press Association Contest is one of the three contests in which the Bailey Bugle is entered. The others are the Emory University Contest and the Chapel Hill Contest, neither of which yet have been held.

P.T.A. PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES OBJECTIVES

In a recent interview with Mrs. Kermit Lewis, newly elected president of the P.T.A., she discussed certain objectives desirable for the school year 1942-43: Victory Garden, continued improvement of lunch room project, better P.T.A. attendance, improved home standards, and better parent-teacher relationship.

Mrs. Lewis further stated, "If we start out with the determination to make a success, we will make this the most successful P.T.A. in Bailey's history."

STUDENT SUPPORT NEEDED

Mrs. Lewis also urged that all students support and cooperate in the drive to secure jars in which to can the summer Victory garden vegetables.

CLASS EXERCISES REVIEW DAYS OF 1880

Professor B.G. Childs of Duke University will give the commencement address April 22, at 8:30 o'clock.

The Baccalaureate Sermon will be delivered by President H.S. Hilley of Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, N.C., Sunday, A.M. April 19, at eleven o'clock.

ROSE GARDEN SETTING

April 21, members of the 1942 graduating class will present their class day exercises entitled A SOUTHERN ROSARY, which will be held in the Bailey High School auditorium. The setting is in an old southern rose garden, depicting all the pomp and glory of the 1880's.

All graduates, both eleventh and twelfth graders, have a definite part in the exercises.
