

Lions Club Sponsors Clean-Up Week, April 6

A "clean-up, pick-up, paint-up" campaign is being sponsored by the Bailey Lions Club the week of April 6-11. First, second, and third prizes of three dollars, two dollars, and one dollar, respectively, will be given.

Everybody in Bailey will be in the contest, for every home and place of business will be visited by the judges. Prizes will be given on the basis of the amount of work done and improvement made.

JUDGING

The main objectives are to clean up alleys, tear down signs and old buildings that are eyesores, collect loose tin, and beautify yards. The debris will be collected on Wednesday and Friday.

First judging was Monday morning and the second judging will be Friday or Saturday.

STAFF ENTERTAINED

Students on the staff of the BAILEY BUGLE were entertained at a dinner party on Thursday evening, April 2, by the editors' mothers, Mrs. D. M. Farmer and Mrs. M. F. Morgan. The party was at the home of Mrs. Farmer. The occasion was to honor the staff for its recent success. The advisers, Mrs. A. H. Farmer, Mrs. Laurine Lassiter, and Mr. Carl H. Walker, also attended.

SPECIAL SENIOR PRIVILEGES GRANTED

Through the generosity of Mr. Walker, the seniors have been granted special senior privileges that have never before been bestowed upon a group of graduates at Bailey High School.

If everyone prepares his lessons well, shows a determined effort in studying, and leaves no doubt about his passing, no senior will have to take a final examination at the end of this semester.

BAILEY'S F. F. A. BAND WINS

The Bailey Chapter of Future Farmers of America won the Nash County Federation Band Contest, which was held at Nashville on Wednesday afternoon, April 11. Members of the band are Jack Farmer, Millard Lamm, Bobby Jones Corbette, James Haskins, and Clyde Finch. The Middlesex Chapter placed second. Middlesex won first place in the Ritual contest while Bailey placed second. Members of the Bailey Chapter competing in the Ritual contest were Richard Stott, Horace High, Jack Farmer, E. C. Griffin, Jr., Braxton Honeycutt, Willis Manning, and Dan Johnson. E. A. Howton is adviser of the Bailey Chapter and Fred U. Wolfe is adviser of the Middlesex Chapter. Other Chapters represented in the contest were Coopers, Spring Hope, Nashville, Rod Oak, Benvenue, Whitakers.
