"They Are Canning"

All girls do not answer the roll call on biology at the same time. In reply to Miss Lackey's inquiry as to the absentees, the few present smile and murmur, "The other girls are canning," or "Mrs. Rogers has the other girls," or "Mrs. Rogers has the remainder of the class."

Just as Miss Lackey thinks she can't bear to hear canning mentioned again, Mrs. Rogers walks in to ask, "May the other girls finish canning?"
