

MAJORITY OF '42 GRADUATES CONTINUE EDUCATION

Last year's graduates losing no time in choosing their future course, have decided principally on three fields, college, nursing, or defense.

COLLEGE OR NURSING

Continuing their education either at college or Nursing schools are Marie Morgan and Horace Meacombs at Duke, Marks Underwood at Davidson, Rachel Jones and Sidney Jones at A.C., Kenneth Farmer at State, Ruby Lamm at Carolina General, and Mary Elizabeth Jones at City Memorial Hospital, Winston Salem.

SECRETARIAL WORK

Josephine Lamm, with the Western Union, Rocky Mount, and Lizzie Mae Manning, secretary for Parsons Motor Company, received their positions for having stenographic training.

DEFENSE WORK

Defense work has called Mozelle Cooper to

Rocky Mount and John C. Finch to New Port News.

VARIED OCCUPATIONS

Varied occupations are claiming Evelyn Stott, working at Bissette's Drug Store, Wilson; Edwin Batts, all-round helper at Meacombs Grocery; Jack Farmer, weigher for Watson warehouse; Janice High, working at Bissette's Drug Store, Wilson; and Thad Jernigan, volunteer in the Navy.

HOME DEFENSE

Remaining at home, Delton Perry, Jessie Haskins, Mavis Francis, Leron Ray, Stephen Earp, and Magdalene Dew, give their services to home defense.

NEWS ASSISTANT

BOBBY JONES CORBETT

What's Next?

Bailey is progressing! Last year a skyscraper (water tower) was erected. Now one can see his favorite western in the "Bailey Auditorium Theatre".
WHAT NEXT?

ASST. AD DESIGNERS

LAVERNE HORNER
SEROBA ANDERSON

J.W. Stone

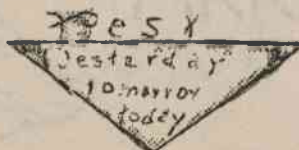

BAILEY, N.C.

See Us For Your

Building Needs

We have What your

Case requires

SERVICE - DIAL 3-2-1