At a very slow Pace (Garland) the Bailey (Easter Pearl) girl walked down the hall. She went into the library and from the High (Iris) shelves chose a book containing pictures of Lamas (J. C. and Ramonia), a Murray (Wanda) Farmer (Sarah Morgan) with a long Beard (Mildred), Brown (Margaret) Barnes (Howard), and old women wearing Wiggs (Mary Grey). High (Horace) tempered, she clapped the book to, exclaiming, "If that's all library books include, I know all of that!" F. J.

SNOOPING SAM

James Earl's bicycle wasn't built for two, but I saw him sporting a girl on it the other day.

Forrest Junior seems quite popular with two members of the Pace family.

Wonder if Sarah Morgan and Horace are always discussing the "Bailey Bugle" when they are seen together.

Wonder why the Bailey boys are singing "Sweet Eloise"?

Charles D. was seen sporting a stretchable bracelet; could it be Reba's?

"Martha, Martha, come here a minute!" came a whispering voice outside the first period study hall door. Guess who it was?

Tommy and Philip now take their 5th period in study hall rather than down the street.

Willis Manning seems quite handy for carrying books from one room to another for the teachers.
