FIRST MEETING OF P.TA. COUNCIL HELD IN NASHVILLE

October 3, 1942, the Nash County Council of the P. T. A. met in the Nashville High School library for its first meeting. Bailey, Benvenue, and Williford were represented.

Mrs. E. C. Griffin, president of the council, presided. After opening with the P. T. A. prayer, the minutes of the organized meeting were read by Mrs. J. T. Boseman. A report of the Bailey P. T. A. work was given by Mrs. K. L. Lewis.

The high light of the meeting was a talk by the district director, Mrs. T. R. Easterling, who spoke briefly of the advantages of the county council work.

The president reported on the Council work and closed the meeting by reading the Parent Teachers Association Pledge.

SCHOOL MATCHES COUNTY FUND

Students of the Bailey High School accept the responsibility of picking cotton one afternoon recently and bringing bundles of tobacco so that the school might match county funds alloted for purchasing library books.

The total amount made was $53.40, $17.20, from cotton picking, $35.60 in from sale of tobacco, and $.60 in cash.
