

This-That-N'tother

(By Phylis)

In talking with fellow students both in and out of school I hear a great deal of criticism concerning the disciplinary methods of the high school teachers.

We students are unfair in that we don't look at their side as well as ours. Unnecessary disturbances cause time lost for both teachers and pupils. If we realize that, we have no room to talk about the teachers.

CHRISTMAS GIVING

What are you going to give for Christmas this year? Does your shopping list include expensive gifts again? Those will be unpatriotic, since we are in the middle of the world's greatest struggle. The Christmas spirit of giving can be patriotically done. Among the patriotic gifts are servicible remembrances or war bonds and stamps. On your list don't forget your man in the service.

COMMENDABLE POLICY

The Bugle's policy of commending in each issue individuals for work done is a very good way to promote good will and to give credit where credit is due.

Many Students To Spend Holidays Elsewhere

Several students are planning to be away from Bailey during Christmas holidays.

Leaving the state are ANNIE MAE PARKER, who plans to spend the holidays in New York with her brother; ALLEEN FINCH, a senior, who goes to Florida to see her husband stationed there; and SARA SEAT and PATSY RUTH EATMON, who expect to visit friends in Virginia.

CARL WALKER, JR. intends to visit an aunt near Elizabeth City; SAMUEL GLOVER, a friend in Raleigh; and HOLLIS HASKINS, his brother in Rocky Mount.

MRS. LASSITER RETURNS

Recovering from an illness at her home, Mrs. Laurine Lassiter, commercial teacher, returns to resume charge of the commercial department.

In her estimation Christine Finch has managed the commercial department splendidly.
