WHAT IS YOUR OPINION REGARDING THE WISDOM OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT

- 1. Sarah Morgan Farmer- I think we should have it, because if students help make the rules they will be more willing to obey them.
- 2. Sallie Lou Perry---- We should have it. If the students know the rules and help make them, they won't be likely to forget and go against them.
- 3. Romaine Perry----- Students know themselves better than teachers know them; therefore, I'm in favor.
- 4. Christine Finch----- Surely, it would help students to rely upon themselves and not be dependent upon others.
- 5. Martin Liles----- Student self-government as an organized group is the essence of modern times and of democratic ideas.
- 6. Hildred Ruffin----- I think it will be a help to the students as well as to the faculty.
- 7. Bobby Stott----- By having this, students can express their opinions better.
- 8. Richard Stott----- I think our school is better like it is unless the majority are willing to support the leaders, which is very unlikely.
- 9. Eleanor Hodrick----- In my opinion, student government will be a great help to the students and faculty.
- 10. Horace High----- I don't think high school students are capable of managing a government, but if it could be done, it would be a wonderful achievement for our school.

Again the BAILEY BUGLE takes the stand that Xmas does not spell Christmas. People who write Xmas omit the true meaning of the word. They leave out Christ, the one whom we honor on this holiday.
