Senior Boy Keeps Memory Book

Hollis Haskin, a senior, has an unusual hobby for a boy, the keeping of a scrapbook. Turning through his scrap book one will find bits of news, announcements, and pictures pertaining to people of his home town and articles about his brother in the armed forces.

In addition to community items his scrapbook is of memento of high school days. Found within are sports announcements, pictures of school-mates, report cards, and other memory-awakenings of his school.

Christmas holidays will begin December the eighteenth and end a week after, December the twenty-ninth.
