FUTURE FARMERS COMPLETE PAMPHLET

The first of a series of pamphlets that are to be published in order to aid the farmers of this community is now ready for distribution. This pamphlet consists of ideas on how to feed and care for birds from small chicks up to grown broilers and layers.

The pamphlet was written by the third and fourth classes taking vocational agriculture.

Another pamphlet is scheduled to be published soon.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST TO BE HELD

As a chapter part of the program of work the Bailey Chapter of the F.F.A. holds its annual public speaking contest Wednesday, Feb. 17.

The finals of the chapter will be given as a part of a chapel program after preliminaries are held in the Chapter. The finals in the federation will be delivered at a father and son banquet if permissible.

SHOP WORK CONTINUES

Boys of Vocational Agriculture have completed the first month of shopwork. The work as a whole has been very successful and information to the boys participating.

Articles made are as listed: Radio-magazine-racks combined, self feeders, flower boxes, biddie and hog troughs, axes and hammer helves, tobacco presser, lawn chairs, butcher knives and brier and bush knives.

FEDERATION MEETING HELD

The Nash County Federation of the F. F. A. hold the third meeting of the year at Bailey, January 28. The meeting was in charge of Roma Turner, president.

During the business session plans were made to abandon the basketball tournament that was to be held in February. The remainder of the program of work that demands travel was left up to Mr. R. J. Peeler, the secretary of the F. F. A. organization.

After the meeting a supper consisting of barbecue, slaw, bread and coffee, was given by the Bailey Chapter.

DEFENSE CLASSES HELD

Classes in the improvement of production of hogs, poultry, dairy cows, and others will begin as soon as there are classes organized. Classes are being held at Mt. Pleasant each Wednesday and Friday nights, under the supervision of Mr. Tapp and Mr. Walker.
