

Alumni News

News Of former Students— Their Activities And Whereabouts

KENNETH FARMER, graduate of 1942, furthers his education by studying Chemical Engineering at State College, Raleigh, N. C.

DAPHNE GRIFFIN now attends Miss Hardbarger's secretarial school in Raleigh.

ELMO BISSETTE works as a secretary with King Drug Company, a wholesale house, in Raleigh.

ROBERT GRIFFIN has completed his course in pre-flight aeronautics at the University of North Carolina and now goes to the Great Lakes Training School in Illinois.

RACHEL JONES, a last year's senior, is attending Atlantic Christian College in Wilson, N. C.

RACHEL BISSETTE, who in September went in training as a nurse, is a student at Woodward Herring Hospital in Wilson, N. C.

CECIL BRANTLEY, recently home on vacation, has been working at Glen L. Martin's aircraft factory in Baltimore. He plans to be inducted in the army soon.

JUANITA JORDAN is a student nurse at the Carolina General Hospital in Wilson.

FRANCES MANNING holds a position in the Wachovia bank in Raleigh, N. C.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS ASSIST IN LUNCHROOM

Juanita Brantley, Gladys Lamm, and Margie High, N. Y. A. workers, assist in the lunch room thirty minutes each day. In return for their services they receive a small check monthly.

Dorothy Mae Parish and Maxine Finch help in the lunch room also, but since they aren't N.Y.A. workers, they receive only their lunches.

V
I
S
I
T
O
U
R
R
E
A
D
Y
TO - WEAR
DEPARTMENT

FOR YOUR NEW SPRING DRESS, COAT OR SUIT

Spring & Summer Goods Arriving Daily.

MOSS & CO.

132-136

S. TARBORO
ST.

"TREAT PEOPLE RIGHT"