

SENIORS LIMIT EXERCISES TO ONE PROGRAM

Bugle Again Rates First Class

By scoring from eight-hundred and fifty to a thousand points, six issues of the Bailey Bugle sent to the Columbia Scholastic Press Association newspaper contest rate first class among duplicated paper of the forty-four states entering the contest.

Not only did the Bugle win first class in the states, but it also won first place in the Carolinas among mimeograph papers within its classification.

Last year Bailey entered its paper in the contest for the first time and at that time achieved first class recognition also.

Service Flag To Be Gift Of Seniors

Bailey seniors leave to the school a service flag to be placed over the trophy cabinet in the main hall.

This flag, 5' by 8', will have a red border with a white field. The stars, three inches in diameter, will be of blue felt satin.

All boys that have attended Bailey school and are in the armed forces will be represented by a star.

Blue stars will represent boys in service and gold stars will be used for the missing and the dead.

Finances Of Bugle Practically Balance

Incomplete check-up of the years' financial status of the Bugle indicates there will be practically no indebtedness for the paper.

Income from subscriptions and ads totals $200.30; expenditures, paper, stencils, ink, equipment, incidentals, and senior pictures make a total of $207.56. Extra sales of last edition is expected to balance the account.

EDITOR OF BUGLE TO SERVE AS REPORTER

Bugle editor, Sarah Farmer, will serve as correspondent for the Rocky Mt. Evening Telegram for Bailey and Middlesex during the summer months. All items except births and personals are considered news.

Sarah was contacted by the Telegram, interviewed, and offered the assignment after the paper learned through Mrs. E. A. Howton, Telegram Proofreader, that the Bugle had again won first place in the CSPA contest.

Last year Sarah was assistant editor of the Bugle, and as a result of her ability and interest was named editor for this year.

CHAPLAIN TO SPEAK

At the request of the State Department commencement exercises this year will be held in one night instead of the usual two night programs.

Chaplain R. E. Quick, from Seymour Johnson Field, Goldsboro, will preach the Baccalaureate Sermon, Sunday morning, April 25, at eleven o'clock.

Reverend Mark Osborne of the Missionary Baptist Church is in charge of the music and Mrs. James Murray will be the pianist.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES

On Monday night at 8:00 the Class Day play "The Pincushion Doll" will be given followed by the presentation of the diplomas and other awards.

Shortage of time will not permit a speaker for the graduation exercises.

Bailey Meets Quota

Bailey's quota for the Red Cross drive was $400. Mrs. James Murray had charge of the drive in town and Mr. Carl Walker at Bailey High School. Donations made to Mrs. Murray and Mr. Walker amounted to $406.24.

Classes leading in the collection of B.H. S. are the Senior class with $67 and the Junior class with $40.
