

HERE AND NOW

140 ALUMNI from Bailey High School are now in the armed forces.

LETTERS congratulating the Bugle on its C. S. P. A. award have been received from former teachers, Miss Ursula Carr and Mrs. Irvin Jackson, the former Miss Josephine Fuller.

RED CROSS quota for the Bailey community was $400. It was reached after three weeks of campaigning.

ELEVEN boys in Bailey High School took the Army and Navy Aptitude test April 1.

BOOKS for soldiers are being collected by the senior class victory corps.

SENIOR additional pages in Bugle constitute an additional cost of $28.00 to this issue. Generous support of the Advertisers makes these pages possible.

Chewing Gum Art

The art of chewing gum in Bailey School recalls "Noah's Ark" when the imitations of animals are noted.

Some students imitate a cow without the slightest effort by their sidewise chewing motions.

Others remind us of dogs, for they certainly can crack a bone perfectly.

The parrot, too, is always chatting and chewing at the same time.

"Oh, would some power the gift to give us, to see ourselves as others see us". F.J.

Mr. Waters Speaks To Seniors

Mr. Waters, a professor at Atlantic Christian College in Wilson, recently talked with the graduating class in Bailey High School. His topic was "What do you intend to do after graduating from high school?"

Among his suggestions he advised, "Further your education by attending a good college and thereby preparing yourself for a happy and full life in the future".

He reminded the students that the war was not going to last forever and that they must look beyond the immediate present.
