

HE PRIES

HE SPIES

HE SNOOPS
Snooping Sam

Of all things! La Verne, a senior, has to be given a pacify to be kept quiet.

Paul, a typewriter prints much faster than a pencil writes. Does Miss Langley object?

My! the compliment Miss Langley received when the man at the fair guessed her age eighteen! What would he say about Miss Ross!

Parties! Parties! Parties! What's the motive sophomore girls?

You needn't look so sneakish Bobby, Tommy, and Willis. Everyone knows what's crumpled in your hand as you enter the room--an excuse.

Maybe it isn't because you look old, Betty Doris, that the man referred to some of the ninth grade girls as your children. Probably he was judging by your sophisticated ways.

Harry Lee, Bobby P. and Rex, do you enjoy seeing your victim scolded by the teacher for going to class without a pencil? Or maybe you are planning to make extra money by selling collected pencils. Which is the motive?

What next? The eavesdropping little mouse tells us the home-ec girls are wishing for a separate building.

BUILDING
MATERIAL
PAINTS — PLUMBING
AND ELECTRICAL SUPPLIES
AUTOMOBILE
GLASS INSTALLED
DILLY HARDWARE
WILSON, N.C.

STOP AT THE
PURE OIL
SIGN
GAS F OIL
O
R
CANDY DRINKS
ICE CREAM

E. J. HIGH
BAILEY, N. C.

BUGLE SNOOPER

BY IVAN DENTON

