

With The Alumni Class of '43

JOSEPHINE PACE, studying at a commercial school in Durham, has already been given part time work.

RICHARD STOTT, last year's agriculture editor, clerks in Meacomes' grocery store in Bailey.

JANIE GLOVER and JOYCE VICK are now telephone operators in Raleigh.

JUANITA BRANTLEY is training at State Hospital in Raleigh.

HAROLD COOPER, voted as the heart-crusher of last year's class, left recently for the army.

MARY ROSE BROWN hopes to begin training as a nurse in March.

GARLAND PACE plans to take an airplane mechanic's course about Christmas.

SPENCER VICK drives a bread truck in Norfolk, Virginia.

HERMAN ANDERSON, and FITZHUGH SANDERS have been, so far, exempted from the army as essential farm workers.

STUDENTS TAKE BUS DRIVERS' TEST

One girl and sixteen boys met the need for bus drivers by taking the drivers test conducted this month by Mr. J.A. Barnes, state officer.

Eligibility was based on age, driver's license, and written consent of parents if contestant was under eighteen years of age.

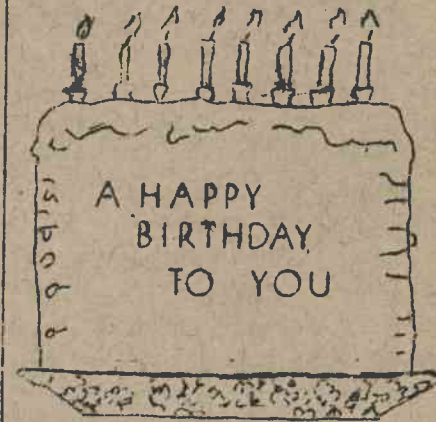

At Nashville the test was held between the school building and Green Gables.

PASSED

Passing this test were Elsie Bisette, Carnell Issette, John Glover, Wallace Bisette, Clyde Finch, Harold Eatmon, Eugene Glover, Bobby Corbette and Isaac Mdelin.

Carnell Issette, one of the contestants, has already been assigned bus No. 3, replacing Harold Glover, who has stopped school.
