Juniors End Contest

Junior teams vied with one another in raising money for the junior-senior entertainment by accepting the offer of the Curtis Publishing Company to sell subscriptions to thirty leading magazines.

After a two weeks struggle the red team with Sallie Lou Perry as Captain came out on top with $158.50; the blue team led by Willis Manning sold $24.

Champoin salesladies, Jewel Grey Bissette, and Ramonia Lamm, will not be awarded the bond or watch, as the $250 quota was not reached.

All salesmen on the red team have received a free ice cream treat paid for by the Curtis Publishing Co.
