

HERE AND NOW

MILDRED RUFFIN, who was office helper two years ago but is now working in the office of defense transportation at Washington, D. C., visited the school last week.

SGT. JASPER FINCH, an old alumni stationed at George Field, Illinois, sent the journalism class a copy of the camp's weekly published paper, SNAFU.

BAILEY MERCHANTS, through their advertisements, supported the school paper this month by purchasing approximately thirty dollars worth of ads.

R. M. MEACOMES becomes patrol leader of Boy Scouts as a result of the resignation of Mr. Leamon Tapp.

RULINGS requiring students tardy or absent from class to report to the office the following morning are expected to improve school attendance and work.

DRIVE TO AID RELIEF

United War Fund campaign, dedicated to all relief organizations and sponsored by the U. S. O., will begin October 20.

Proceeds from this campaign will be divided among twenty-five worthy relief organizations of the nation.

Officials Praise Students' Response

Commending the students upon their response to the request to buy only a nickel of ice cream per day as deliveries are made biweekly, the lunch room supervisors stated that this response usually meant cream for all now.

"The students are also remaining in line better", remarks the workers.

Since the return of long schedule, more plates lunches have been sold.

EDUCATION WEEK NEARING

That Education week will be applied to the spirit of the times is manifested in the theme, Education for Victory, selected for special emphasis during the week of November 7.

Items expected to be stressed include physical fitness, savings, and all other vital victory methods.

Mrs. May To Sponsor Jr. Red Cross Drive

Under the leadership of Mrs. T. C. May, seventh grade teacher, Bailey school joins the nation in sponsoring the Junior Red Cross drive, November 1 through 15.

A minimum fee of one penny entitles any student to become a member of the organization. In addition the school receives a copy of the JUNIOR RED CROSS MAGAZINE.

Fifty percent of the fund raised remains in the county for Junior Red Cross activities.

PLENTY JUNIOR DRESSES, SKIRTS, AND SWEATERS.

BOYS' SHOES, SPORT SLACKS, AND JACKETS.

HEADQUARTERS IN WILSON SCHOOL BOYS AND GIRLS IS AT LEDER BROS.

Be A Smart Dresser Shop At Leder's.

116 TARBORO ST. WILSON, N. C.