

HE PRIES

HE SPIES

HE

SNOOPS

Snooping Sam

My! My! Sallie Lou, do you fear everything as much as you do a grasshopper?

When Mrs. Farmer says, "Take the next sentence, Joe", why does Joe High, Joe Lamm, Jo Griffin and Joe Bisette get nervous?

Can you imagine! Seniors having their second childhood! Evidently that's how old they think they must be, for when the teacher's back is turned, chalk throwing becomes a pastime.

Rumors say sophomores feel grown up. Bobby Ray certainly must be truly sophomoric, since he is already known as Mr. Meacomes.

It's no use, Willis. you couldn't possibly think up a question about history that Miss Johnson couldn't answer and illustrate too.

Evelyn, if you can't count to 5 by 1's for Miss Johnson, you better not try counting by 2's.

Ivan's interest in passing airplanes certainly is in conflict with Mrs. Farmer's idea of class interest.

"Oh my hair! Bobbing for apples is fun but not getting our hair wet" was heard from Jean, Nancy, and Ruth at the Sunday School class party.

Jean, we might take up a collection for a new broom for you to use in the home ec. department. Shall we?

BUILDING MATERIAL
PAINTS — PLUMBING AND ELECTRICAL SUPPLIES

AUTOMOBILE
GLASS INSTALLED
DILLY HARDWARE
WILSON, N.C.

PURIE
GAS & OIL
E. J. HIGH

CANDY.....DRINKS
ICE CREAM
BAILEY, N.C.

BUGLE SNOOPER

BY IVAN DENTON

DITCH DUG BY BAILEY BOYS, YEP, MIGHT MAKE A GOOD STORY FOR THE BAILEY BUGLE.

HMM, RED DIRT, YEP, MIGHT MENTION THAT IT WAS A HARD TASK.

!!!?