NO HOLIDAYS TO BE OBSERVED THANKSGIVING

"That no Thanksgiving holidays will be observed in Nash County, according to a rule made by the Nash County Board of Education, is true," states Principal Weaver.

Until Christmas, when one week's vacation will be celebrated, no holidays will be given.

It was the decision of the board that this procedure would enable students and teachers to get an earlier summer vacation.

Sale Of Turkey Helps Solve Lunch Room Finances

Because of the rising cost of food the expenses of the lunch room have not been covered by the sale of lunches.

In order that the supervisors might continue serving a four-item plate for a dime

J.E. Beard donated a turkey to be sold for the lunchroom.

Tickets were distributed to the students who sold them at ten cents each or three for a quarter. The lucky number was drawn at P.T.A. last night.

HEALTH PROGRAM BEGINS AT BAILEY

MISS WEAVER TO ASSIST WITH SCREENING

Comprising one study group, the teachers of Middlesex, Bailey, Mt. Pleasant, and Ferrells are meeting twice a week with State Health Service officials to study plans for promoting general health.

At the first meeting, November 3, Dr. Jacocks, head of the state program, stressed the importance of healthful school living and stated that health facilities would be checked and recommendations be offered.

"The school and its grounds should be a model of cleanliness and beauty for every child," declared Dr. Jacocks.

CHECK UP

Check up will include such items as heat, fire hazards, nutrition, lighting, water supply, toilet conditions, and general cleanliness of building and grounds.

Visiting Bailey November 18 and working with the teachers in discovering any defects a child may have that impair his mental and physical growth will be Miss Weaver.

MEETINGS

Meetings will alternate between Bailey and Middlesex schools. Other subjects to be discussed are health habits, physical education, and communicable diseases.

Etheridge Asserts

Seniority Rule

Tommy Etheridge, the original, has capped all his former clever tricks; he now elbows his way down the crowded halls with a dangerous two-pronged weapon.

Casually strolling through the halls, Tommy merely smiles, sharply prods people in the ribs, and moves on, hindered by no one.

To break one's shoulder while playing football is no joking matter, but it does have its advantages when the cast is steel with sharp points.
