

HE PRIES

HE SPIES

HE SNOOPS

Can "Pistol-Packing Mama" be put to the tune of "Jingle Bells?" Ask Philip and Tommy.

With James in the corner and Willis in the front of the room, we're wondering who'll be assigned a special seat next.

Nature has a way of giving our characteristics away. We found that out by the question Patsy Ruth asked Miss Weaver. And behold! We found also that Patsy is going to boss her husband.

What a good excuse, Susie, for not knowing a question. Maybe the rest of us can get Leslie to be so obliging as to "knock the answer out of us."

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Farmer were discovered collecting rocks. Now tell me, someone, has a hobby been unearthed?

Well, Bobby, you had us fooled, didn't you? We thought the D on your sweater stood for Duke, not darling.

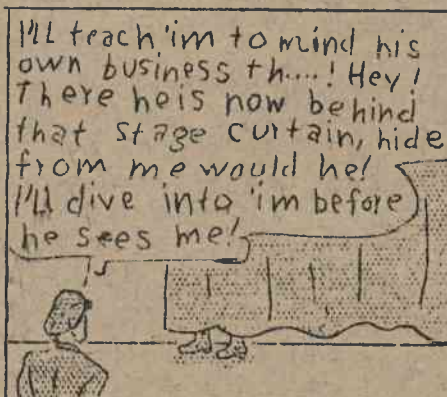

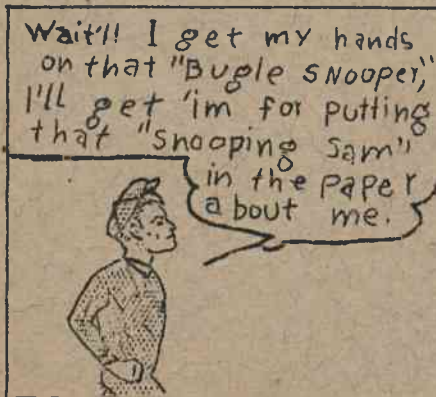

GIVEN: Shattered senior dignity.
TO FIND: 1. Why two senior girls preferred standing to sitting.
2. Why Mrs. Farmer's hand burned and stung.
SOLUTION: Conduct grades.

James Ray, do you think Clara Jean will always agree that you have three or four cows to milk when you start fussing about so many lessons?
