

HERE AND NOW

SCHOOL CLOSES for Christmas holidays Tuesday, December 21, about three-thirty. School work resumes Wednesday, December 22.

CHRISTMAS is thoughtlessly written by many people, as XMAS.

In mathematics, X represents an unknown quantity; therefore everyone should write Christmas instead of Xmas, which implies an unknown Christ.

SIXTH GRADE at Mt. Pleasant with an enrollment of 28 students had 100% attendance for a week.

ONE HUNDRED PERCENT MEMBERSHIP in the Junior Red Cross Drive is the record of Bailey school. Donations in high school totaled $15.25; in the elementary school, $22.75.

MILK to serve in the lunch room is needed. Either cash or lunch tickets will be given in return for milk.

DEMONSTRATION LESSONS in physical education were given the teachers of Bailey last week by Miss Moore, Miss Outlaw, and Mr. Spencer.

FROM 250 TO 300 LUNCHES are now served in the lunch room every day.

NAMES of 50% of the students were used in the first three issues of the Bugle.

Fund Drive To Continue Until Quota Reached

Bailey township's quota for the National War Fund, dedicated to all relief organizations, is $1,250. Mr. M. F. Morgan and Mrs. A. B. Farmer, directing the drive, state that up to date $833 has been collected.

Proceeds from this campaign cover three fronts in one cause: the military front, united nations front, and home front.

Mrs. Farmer says that the drive will continue until the quota is reached.

JEEP

Secretary of the United States Treasury and the state chairman for the sale of war savings bonds and stamps in recognition of Bailey, Coopers, Nashville, Oak Level, Benvenue, Spring Hope, Whitakers, and Williford having raised enough money through the purchase of bonds to pay for jeeps:

Girls To Organize Scout Troop

Under the leadership of Miss Melba Martin a Girl Scout troop is being organized. Already the application blank has been received from national headquarters.

Offering her assistance, Mrs. A. B. Farmer has been named leader of the advisory committee. Miss Langely and Mrs. Harold Finch have volunteered as group leaders.

Final plans for the organization are in the making. The troop will be ready for active service the first of the year.
