43 steps down the hall to the typing room, 43 steps back. Multiply this by 5 and the figure is 430 extra steps per week Mrs. Farmer has to make to check on the students from her study hall typing at that period. For detail information as for the WHYS ask Romaine and Tommy.

John Glover must think he is going to be a girl some day, and La Verne's lipstick must be his favorite color.

Happenings! They certainly will happen when the journalism students start snooping around. That is what they say. How about it?

My! This question on the Civil War is hard. Maybe we should ask Ivan about it. That war seems more alive to him than the present one.

Lynette, everyone wants to know why you get so quiet when the word "chicken" is mentioned??????

Slow pokes, class dogers, or mischievous makers? Which class do you belong in, Jean and Clara Jean, when you become locked in the gym?

Phew!! It's no use, girls. You can't fix your hair like Norman Nixon's. No wonder! How many times an hour does he comb it, Bobby Ray and Pete?
