Class Studies Safety

We have been studying Safety in Miss Lamm's fifth grade. Safety is not a large word, but an important word. We have some safety pictures in our room that we have studied. I think everyone should study this topic.

The following sentences are some safety rules.

1. Obey the traffic officer.
2. Cross the street only at corners.
3. Stop, look, and listen before crossing a railroad.
4. When riding a bicycle obey the traffic rules of an auto.
5. Walk to left facing traffic.
6. Never run out in the street to get a ball before you look both ways.
7. Do not ride children on the handle bar of a bicycle.
8. Wait until the school bus stops before getting on or off.
9. Be careful at all times.

SIXTH GRADE COLLECTS COCOONS

Last fall some of the sixth grade pupils came running to their teacher carrying a large green worm, which was placed in a jar with some oak leaves. The next morning the worm had spun a cocoon and wrapped it in leaves. The children began collecting worms. Frost came and they began to collect cocoons. They now have a display of 119 cocoons and are eagerly awaiting the moths.

MISS LAMM: "Give me the formula for a good speech, John?"
JOHN: "Have a good beginning and good ending, and keep them close together."
