School To Participate In Health Conference This Summer

Mr. L. S. Insko, county superintendent, and Dr. Jacobs, state health director, came to Bailey this month and presented the opportunity for six teachers, three from high school and three from the elementary department, to attend the six weeks health conferences this summer at Greensboro or Chapel Hill.

Included courses will be Personal Health

Problems, School and Community Health Problems, Methods and Materials in Health Education, and Child Health Problems.

Half of the expenses of those attending will be paid by the state; the county hopes to pay the other half.

Expecting to enroll from here will be Miss Jewel Langley, Miss Melba Martin, and Mr. M. W. Weaver for the high school unit. To date Miss Grace Ross is the only elementary representative enrolled.

Next fall these teachers will aid in health activities in nearby schools.

GR. MOTHERS TO GRADUATE WITH SENIORS

When the present senior class was in the first grade, Mrs. M. H. Griffin and Mrs. A. B. Corbett were chosen as grademothers.

These two women have served in this same capacity throughout the eleven years of school.

As a part of their class day exercise, the seniors plan to pay special honor to the grademothers.

Best Wishes, Seniors.
