

Happy Sailing, Seniors

May health happiness and success always be your triumph, seniors!

You've at last acquired the first real stepping stone and turning point in life.

In the yesteryears, to be a senior was your ideal hope, but now that you are one, you pause to recall pleasant memories.

One of your most vivid life impressions will be when that long-sought diploma is given to you, and back of that, a picturesque scene of laborious yet happy school days.

To The Advertisers, Our Thanks

To the many advertisers who are a main financial asset of the BUGLE the staff wishes to express their appreciation. No more earnest words can be said than--THANK YOU!

We hope that you have enjoyed patronizing us as much as we have enjoyed serving you.

The staff will be looking forward to your cooperation next year.

Education More Important Than Jobs

Urgent requests for girls and boys to relieve the serious shortage of workers are heard, and in some instances the calls have deterred students from finishing school.

Temporary jobs in the summer or during vacation together with tempting wages often entice pupils to forsake plans of graduating altogether.

Students, lost schooling now can never be supplemented and after the war may reduce your chances of getting a permanent job to say nothing of the regret ever after.

A Senior Speaks —

My debt to B. H. S. is one that is foremost in my obligations, for it was here that I got my foundation for future life.

It has given me knowledge and skill and a sense of responsibility and fair play, in return for a little study-effort and ambition.

Besides this, I can thank B. H. S. for making the easiest days of my life also my happiest ones. From here I can recall friends and little moments that will never fade from my memory.

A way that I can fulfill my debt is by living up to the standards set by past traditions and making B. H. S. proud to call me hers.

HABITS BETRAY PERSON 5

Judge a person by his deeds alone, then give him credit for them.

The truth is a plain, simple vow that is vowed and then stuck to.

Cheer up a person when he is down and out.

Be so broad-minded as to overlook "cute remarks".
