

COLLEGE ATTACTS HALF OF '44 SENIORS

HALF OF the seniors of '44 are in college or business school, seven have employment, two are in the armed forces, one is continuing her studies at Bailey High, and four are helping at home.

Those attending business school are SEROBA ANDERSON, ELTON GLOVER, and La VERNE HORNER, all at King's in Raleigh. Entering college are BOBBY JONES CORBETT at Oak Ridge; FOREST PERRY and ADOLPH BRANTLEY, State, ROSANNA JONES and ARAH PEARL HORTON Atlantic Christian College; BOBBIE MORGAN, Duke; TOMMY ETHERIDGE, Wake Forest; and JOSEPHINE GRIFFIN, Woman's College in Greensboro. RUTH RUFFIN will enroll soon at King's Business School.

JOE HIGH and HENRY EARL GLOVER are in the Navy. WALLACE BISSETTE is taking Air Corps training at State College.

Employed are BOBBY STOTT, working at the Rock Quarry; GLADYS LAMM at Baltimore; MAUDE LEWIS at Goldsboro; PHILIP STONE, Eugene's Filling Station, Bailey; ROMAINE PERRY, Draft Board, Spring Hope; and MARGIE HIGH, Raleigh with the telephone office.

BRUCE GRIFFIN, RAYMOND JONES, and CLEO PATTERSON are at home.

JEAN VICK married during the summer. She is now Mrs. Roland Murray.

MELBA JEAN STOTT is enrolled at Bailey again this year.

A past editor of the Bailey Bugle, two years ago, Sarah Morgan Farmer has been asked to serve on the staff of the college paper at Greensboro College.

AIRPORT TO BE READY BY LAST OF MONTH

Completion of the Wilson Municipal Airport, located near Wilson, has been scheduled for the latter part of this month.

This county project, covering two square miles, costing approximately one million and a half dollars, has been financed by the government and Wilson county. (next column)

AT WILSON, N.C.

The airport, contracted by Kline, G. W. Gregory, and Brown Paving, will be used as a Naval Base and a commercial airport between southern points.

AVENUE GARDENS

Fine Flowers

"WE APRECIATE YOUR BUSINESS"

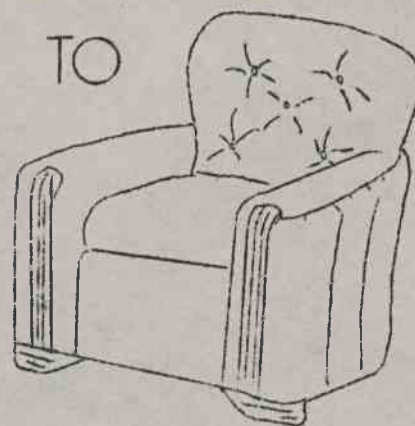

302 PARK AVE.

WILSON, N. C.

PHONE 2257

To Add Comfort And Attractiveness

TO

Your Home At A Low Cost

VISIT

JOHNSON'S FURNITURE CO.